

5 Celebrity Chef Brunch Recipes to Try This Weekend

By Rachel Sparks

Brunch is the perfect way to recover from a late night or the best way to start a late morning. Often starring traditional breakfast proteins such as eggs, bacon, or ham, brunch is a more filling option than breakfast and more savory than a light lunch. Try these recipes this weekend to help you, and anyone else, have a speedy recovery from weekend festivities or as the start (or end) of a weekend date idea.

Try these five celebrity chef recipes for your Sunday brunch this weekend!

1. Sarabeth Levine's Goat Cheese & Arugula Frittata: There's something about the word "frittata" that scares people, but you shouldn't worry. Frittatas are one of the easiest, low maintenance egg-based meals you can make. Scramble the eggs in a bowl, pour into an already warm pan, toss in goat cheese crumbles, arugula, and seasoning, and bake on low for thirty minutes. It's easy but delicious.

2. Suzanne Goin's Breakfast Sandwich: This open faced sandwich features brioche, prosciutto, gruyere, and a fried egg. All that means is fancy bread, pork, and cheese served with a fried egg on top. Sound fancy with this fast, high quality breakfast sandwich. Add arugula for a sprig of green and a slice of tomato for an extra juicy, savory bite.

3. Sam Crannell's Poached Egg Over Roasted Asparagus and Ham: This brunch is worthy of a white tablecloth and a mimosa. Slow cook the ham to help it soak up all of its own fat for a tender texture and rich flavor. Blanch (a fancy term for partially cooking in a boiling pot of water) the asparagus and then sauté to help them remain crisp even as they brown. Top with a poached egg. Once you crack open that extra runny yolk, you'll have a plate worth licking.

4. Classic Israeli Shakshuka: This Israeli classic is as easy to make as the frittata. The traditional recipe is eggs poached in a tomato sauce, served family-style in the cast iron pan. Make it more brunch-like with shreds of ham, sliced arugula, and goat cheese crumbles. Any variation you make will be delicious!

5. Alton Brown's Eggs Benedict: If you haven't heard of Alton Brown the food genius, you're missing out. Aside from his food science shows, Brown is known for his shows Cutthroat Kitchen and Iron Chef. His resume is intimidating, so we trust him with this classic. The trick for Eggs Benedict is perfecting the Hollandaise sauce, so be prepared to have a carton of eggs (or two) as you learn. But once it's perfected, this is the celebrity status brunch everyone will love.

Date Idea: Listen to the Music

By Sarah Ribeiro & Melissa Lee

It's almost June, which means it's time to start doing summer activities. This weekend, start the new season off right by spending some time at outdoor performances with your love.

If you and your sweetheart are huge music fans, this weekend date idea might be perfect for you two!

Some of the most popular summer activities are outdoor fairs, concerts and music festivals. Not only are they fun, but they can be incredibly romantic too. Look up your local symphony orchestra; most of them hold open practices in the early summer, where you and your sweetheart can wrap yourselves in a blanket at the park and listen to classical music under the stars. For a more private experience, you and your love can stay in the parking lot, canoodling in the back seat of the car, high-school style, while you listen through the open windows.

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Karaoke Night

Check your newspaper and community bulletin board to find more local outdoor concerts or music festivals where you can cuddle with your sweetheart. You can try something new, like a bluegrass festival: Bluegrasser has a database of national bluegrass events where you and your beau can get country. Most bluegrass festivals even feature farmer's markets, where you can buy local produce and other goods like handwoven blankets and handmade jewelry. Or check out a jazz festival, where you and your love can spend the day dancing in each other's arms, filling up on goodies from food vendors and exposing yourselves to rising musicians.

Related Link: Date Idea: Binge Watch a New TV Show

If you're more of an active couple, you can check out a bigger-scale music festival. Larger festivals are typically three days long, with tens to hundreds of mainstream acts playing on multiple stages. Some festivals that are traditionally held in late May and early June are Electric Daisy Carnival in New York, Sasquatch! Festival in George, Washington, and Bonnaroo in Manchester, Tennessee. In past years, these three festivals have featured acts such as Fatboy Slim, Avicii, Jack White, Bon Iver, Radiohead and Red Hot Chili Peppers. Find a festival that best suits you and your sweetheart's music tastes and plan a road trip with them. Spend the entire weekend listening to your favorite musicians, dancing and falling even more in love.

Date Idea: Make Sushi Together

By Daniela Agurcia & Melissa Lee

Every girl loves to be wined and dined by her significant other. While restaurants are great, sometimes, you want a cozy night indoors when your partner surprises you with his best rib dish, a bottle of wine and a bouquet of red roses.

In reality, we're not all top chefs and often end up making a mess in the kitchen when we even attempt to make something as simple as macaroni. In this situation, a sushi kit can save date night.

You can find a sushi kit at a nearby grocery store for a reasonable cost. They're not as complicated as they sound and will walk you through the entire process, helping your date night to go as planned. Dress up and invite your beau over for a home-cooked meal. Greet him with a glass of Pinot Grigio, and surprise him in the kitchen with the sushi materials all set-up for you to make your favorite rolls together. Sushi kits come with a cookbook, rice, nori for wrapping the sushi, ginger, spicy wasabi and soy sauce. A couple of simple rolls you can make include California Rolls, Tuna Rolls and Salmon Rolls. Put on your favorite playlist, and for the next 30 minutes, flip through the cookbook and create a 10-15 piece sushi set. Lay it all out on a big plate and fill a little bowl with soy sauce. You're ready to feast!

Related Link: Tease Your Taste Buds on This Weekend Date Idea

After you put your kit to good use, spend the rest of your time together enjoying your sushi and that bottle of wine. Catch up on what you've both done throughout the week, and sit back and enjoy each other's company. The best part about a sushi dinner is that you don't get that extremely full feeling you'd have if you ate something heavy like pasta or a burger. Sushi is the perfect meal to leave you feeling satisfied with some extra room for something sweet.

Go the extra mile and surprise your date with a fortune cookie for dessert...but customize it. Slip in a little note that reads "I love you" or "I'm happy I met you." It's an unexpected gesture that will make your date feel especially loved. Plus, it'll make this date night all the more memorable.

Date Idea: Workout Together

By Daniela Agurcia & Melissa Lee

April is here, with Summer just around the corner. Now is the time where everyone throws on their swimsuits and heads to tropical destinations like Cancun, Miami, and Hawaii to lay out in the white sand and soak up the beaming sun. It's the last chance for you to sculpt those legs and define those abs – and what better way to do it than with the one you love.

After a great workout for this date idea, you'll feel stress-free and energized. Plus, it provokes happiness, which will benefit your relationship.

Use this month to develop an exercise schedule together. Take advantage of all of your options, whether it's at your local gym or a nearby park. Sign up for a spinning class, something you can do at your own pace since your strength level will be different than your partner's. It doesn't even have to be a workout – dancing provides great exercise as well. Hit up the nearest salsa class for a curve-building calorie killer. Whether it's dancing or weight training, be there for each other and remember that it's about support – not competition!

Related Link: Date Idea: Become a Football Fanatic

Don't want to waste a beautiful day indoors? Kill two birds with one stone by heading to the park. Run side-by-side for 30 minutes, and then help each other with a core workout on the grass. You can even go hiking or canoeing to put those legs and arms to work, all while engaging in conversation and enjoying each other's company.

Related Link: Date Idea: Enjoy the Great Outdoors with Your Other Half

Many people don't have time to fit in exercise between their jobs and their social lives. But you don't have to choose one over the other. Dating shouldn't derail your plans to get fit this summer. You both want to look good for each other, so what better way than getting fit with someone you love? With your new fitness regimen, you can accomplish this. Sounds too good to pass up. Give it a try!

Date Idea: Have a Colorful Day

By Ché Blackwood & Melissa Lee

Remember the fun of youth by creating a daytime date centered on coloring. With this relationship advice, you'll be taking a trip down memory lane with the one you love. It'll you feeling rejuvenated and creative!

For this date idea, invest in a box of crayons, grab a few coloring books, stock up on old sweet films and give yourself the play date of your childhood dreams!

There are a variety of coloring books, allowing you to choose the best ones for your personality. If your honey likes baseball, pick up a workbook focused on the popular pastime. If you've still got a thing for princesses, purchase a Cinderella coloring book. If kid's books aren't your thing, head over to an adult store. Many of them carry adult themed coloring books, which will prevent your afternoon from staying G-rated.

Related Link: Date Idea: Revisit Your Childhood

Challenge your beau's artistic talents by judging each other's coloring. If you're really creative, grab a few colored pages from each book and make up a story together. Sketch to your hearts' content, but be sure to stop as soon as soon as it loses its appeal. Some things are better in moderation.

Related Link: Date Idea: Laugh Out Loud Fun

Once the crayons have started to crumble, watch a favorite animation together. Whether a classic like Beauty and the Beast or a more grown up choice, like Futurama, savor the experience of watching cartoons together with popcorn and a cozy cuddle on the couch. The rare opportunity to forget your adult responsibilities will leave you feeling joyful and young at heart.

Date Idea: Spend a Day at the Zoo

By Ché Blackwood and Marissa Donovan

Get close with your sweetheart by visiting a zoo! Watch the penguins swim and the tigers wrestle while spending an afternoon outside in the fresh air. See the variety of other creatures sharing our planet.

Get wild with this date idea by going to the zoo with your loved one!

If you want to get really close to Mother Nature, visit a petting zoo. While you may not spot any lions, you'll have the chance to touch gentle animals like sheep, pigs and goats.

Related Link: Date Idea: Cuddle With a Furry Friend

If sea creatures are more up your alley, visit an aquarium. Watching sharks glide through the water and jelly fish pulsate will leave you relaxed and in awe. Try quizzing each other with animal trivial while entering a new exhibit!

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Kinkajous, Horses, and Clown Fish – Oh My!

Make sure to leave a donation before heading home to ensure zoos and other animal friendly organizations can continue their work. You can also go home and donate money to a organization that is currently helping your favorite species. Sometime an organization will give you a birth certificate for donating, which would be a great gift for your partner!

Date Idea: Create Magic in Your Relationship

By Ché Blackwood & Melissa Lee

Show your partner what you have up your sleeve by adding a little mysticism to your daily routine. Skip your usual weekend haunts and attend a local magic show with your honey.

Whether you're seeing a famous act or something more low key, it'll only take one wave of the wand to spice up your date night.

Find a venue by checking the local listings in your area.

Seeing a magic show can make for some great conversation as you and your sweetheart try to unravel the secrets of the performance once its over. If there aren't any acts nearby, scout one out in the city nearest you. It may be worth taking a road trip together.

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Play All Day

Another idea is to bring the mystery home by purchasing a magic kit online or from your local toy store. Dress up as an assistant and let your significant other perform all types of tricks on you. Or make a game of it by each learning a separate trick to impress one another with. Whatever you choose, you'll be casting an enchanting spell over the evening.

What's your favorite magic trick? Tell us in the comments below!

Date Idea: Couple Up with Game Night

By Ché Blackwood & Melissa Lee

It may still be too chilly to throw a BBQ or spend an evening drinking with your lover on the patio, but that shouldn't stop you from double dating. This weekend, take the fun inside by hosting a couple's game night.

Whether you're playing with your partner or against, healthy competition mixed with good company will guarantee an uproarious date night.

Group games, like charades and Pictionary, involve everyone and foster a loud, exciting atmosphere. Keep score throughout the night to see which couple racks up the most points. To make a tradition out of it, create a small trophy for the winners to take home. Every month, plan a new game night and rotate the trophy accordingly.

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Game On

Technology can help keep your game night interactive. Fire up your PS3 or Xbox and have a tournament. Let the console keep track of each team's points while playing games like Call of Duty or Wii Sports. There's nothing wrong with a little new age entertainment! If you have single friends, invite them over with a platonic teammate. Everyone can join in on game night.

Related Link: Weekend Date Idea: Build a Fort

At the end of the evening, you can wind down with pizza and a movie. Even if your other couple friends can't show, a night of first person shooters and Monopoly with your sweetheart will keep the memories coming as the hours fly by.

Date Idea: Pucker Up While Putt-Putt Golfing

By Melissa Lee

Are you tired of having to sit quietly during your regular movie dates? If so, your next date with your significant other should be an awesome game of putt-putt golf! This will give you guys a chance to try something new, all while enjoying the warm summer weather and each others' company.

You don't have to be a pro to enjoy the game with your mate; this date idea is all in the name of fun and love!

Miniature golf will give you two a chance to be competitive, which will create fun conversations – something that every relationship needs! Come on guys, don't we all love being able to help out our partners when they are struggling to hit the ball? This is also the perfect time to be cute and cuddly. Go ahead and give your love a special kiss when he/she does a good job! You know what else wouldn't hurt? A comforting hug when your sweetheart misses the ball – your cool point meter will increase big time!

Related Link: Enjoy the Outdoors With This Challenging Date Idea

Another way to make your date priceless is by dressing alike! By throwing on some matching polo's and some nice cargo shorts, you'll be picture perfect together. Now after your fun but tiresome date, dine at the restaurant of your choice and talk about all the funny things that happened while golfing. Sounds like the perfect date!

Take a look at some of America's best and most bizarre courses:

1. Lake George, N.Y.'s Around the World in 18 Holes
2. Mayday Golf in Myrtle Beach, S.C.
3. Putz n Glo Miniature Golf in Rapid City, S.D.

Date Idea: Take Him Out To The Ball Game

By Melissa Lee

It's summertime, which means it's the perfect time to bond with your beau over something he loves ... baseball! Not only will this show him that you listen to what he likes, but also that you're willing to take an interest and bond with him over it.

Why not surprise your honey with tickets to see his favorite baseball team for date night?

If you don't want to head to a Major League game, why not remind him of his childhood and check out a little league game? This way you have the rush of real competition, but without the stress of all the rules of major league baseball.

Plus, watching Little League is usually free, where as Major League can be pretty pricey.

Related Link: Date Idea: Enjoy the Warm Weather

If you don't want to head to a game, why don't you make your own? Get some friends and family together and set up a game in your own backyard or nearby park. Grab a bat and a ball and play for yourself. It definitely beats sitting on the couch watching the game.

Related Link: Date Idea: Couples Barbecue

Or even better, set up a couples baseball game, and make it a weekly event! If you don't feel like putting a whole game together, simply play a game of catch with your beau. What better way to enjoy a beautiful summer day?

Date Idea: Take In Some Cartoons

By Melissa Lee

Remember Sesame Street, Winnie the Pooh and Bugs Bunny? They were probably your favorite cartoons when you were younger, and still are today. But now that you're older and too busy, you might not have the time to watch them.

Well, why not use this date idea and spend this weekend catching up on your favorite cartoons with your mate? After all, you're never too old for Loony Tunes.

Snuggle up on the couch with your man and watch some Saturday morning cartoons. Make a breakfast complete with Lucky Charms, and turn back the clock to a time when everything was easy.

Related Link: Date Idea: Laugh Out Loud Fun

Spend the following day with an animated flick at a theater.

Not interested in anything that's currently being played? Rent your favorite Disney classic films and cuddle up with with a bowl of popcorn and soda at home with your significant other.

Date Idea: Give Thanks to One Another

By Melissa Lee

It's that time of year again. It's time for family, friends, and slaving over a hot stove.

Are you a newlywed worried about preparing your first Thanksgiving dinner? Don't worry, you're not the only one! Cupid's got you covered, and you may be able to make this into a date idea.

First you have to determine how many people you'll be entertaining. Try checking out some recipes for large groups of people. These recipes will make it very easy to cook for a crowd. For a small, intimate crowd, try some unique appetizers that will fit perfectly on a small side table, like cheese fondue.

Date Idea: Pretend You're a King and Queen

By Melissa Lee

With another potential royal wedding coming down the line, there's no better time to go on a date that makes your partner feel like a king or a queen.

Enjoy living like a king or a queen for the weekend with these date ideas.

One of the most classically royal things to do is to attend a ball. It doesn't have to be Cinderella-level on decadence, but with the holidays approaching there are plenty of charity balls and events from which to choose. Some are invite-only, but others only require a donation for a seat. It's the perfect excuse to get all gussied up, and it's for a good cause, too! Cities like Chicago and Boston have a bunch this holiday season!

Related Link: Date Idea: Pop The Cork!

While you likely won't be able to get to the ball in a horse drawn carriage, you can take a ride in one afterward. Central Park in NYC is famous for its horse-drawn carriage rides, but many other city parks offer them as well.

Related Link: Date Idea: See Sparks Fly

For a more cost-effective royal feeling, take a tour of the nearest high end jewelry store near you. Tiffany's or Cartier will work, but remember you're just there to browse – unless you actually are a royal, in which case, buy away!

Date Idea: Early Morning Ideas

By Melissa Lee

Ever hear the expression, “The early bird gets the worm?”
Well, it’s true in love as well!

This weekend Cupid has some date ideas for the early morning riser who wants to get a head start on love.

There's no date more romantic than a hot air balloon ride.

With daylight savings now in place, we all get an extra hour of sun in the morning, and you can soak it up with your favorite loved one. This date is best at sunrise, but can also be taken at sundown, too. Any time of day, the views of all landscapes will be great as fall colors will be ablaze beneath you.

Related Link: Date Idea: Stroll Through the Farmer's Market

For a more cost effective date, there's always breakfast. But don't go out to any old pancake house. Stay in and make breakfast together! Watch an early morning classic like "The Breakfast Club," or skip the news in favor of a more comedic take with Anchorman. Nothing starts the day better than mixing things up a little bit.

Related Link: Date Idea: Run in the Name of Love

Either one of these can be followed by an early morning walk; just the two of you, before the rest of the world is awake.

Date Idea: Be Daring on Your

Date

By Melissa Lee

Need ideas for a date this weekend? It's time to take some risks and go on an adventure with your special someone.

Not every date needs to be the classic standby of dinner and a movie anymore, and there are fun and original date ideas even for the more faint of heart.

Like the idea of still getting a meal out of your evening?

There are plenty of cooking classes thrown by institutes and even some more exclusive restaurants.

Related Link: Date Idea: Take a Risk and Be Daring

Want to put some funk in the evening? Channel your inner Pauly D or Samantha Ronson and take a DJ-ing class together! You could even learn to mix your very own “song” for the two of you...or just a fun dance mix. Check out places like Dubspot for more information.

Related Link: Date Idea: Enjoy The Great Outdoors With Your Other Half

If you’re feeling more adventurous, you could check out everything from indoor skydiving in a wind tunnel to taking lessons that could land you under the big top! “Simply Circus” offers classes in a variety of circus-inspired activities for anyone who dares.

Date Idea: Star in Your Own Romantic Comedy

By Noelle Downey

Looking for fun date night ideas for the weekend? Even if your love life might not be quite as glamorous as a Hollywood romantic comedy, that doesn't mean you can't live out your favorite movie-style date!

Take a cue from some of your, or your partner's, favorite rom coms and reenact a date idea from the movie.

1. 500 Days of Summer: Do you have a more realistic take on love? Then (500) Days of Summer is for you. Head to IKEA or a similar home goods store and play house in the set-up kitchens, living rooms and bedrooms. Be as silly as possible! It worked for Joseph Gordon-Levitt and Zoe Deschanel in the movie, so why couldn't it set off sparks for you, too?

Related Link: Date Idea: Spring Into Romance

2. How to Lose a Guy in Ten Days: Are you and your mate the competitive type? Start off like Matthew McConaughey and Kate Hudson in How to Lose a Guy in Ten Days and go out for lobster! It's an interactive food, but leaves room for talking, too. They play a game of questions in the movie, but feel free to take a different leaf from the movie's script and challenge each other with different bets. See who holds up their end and who cracks under the rom com pressure with this fun weekend date idea.

Related Link: Date Idea: Laugh Out Loud Fun

3. It Happened One Night: Or, if you're into the more classic love stories, there's nothing like a road trip to live out your It Happened One Night dreams. Claudette Colbert and Clark Gable bicker all down the road, but after one night at a roadside inn, the two can't help but fall in love. Hopefully your travels will be less bumpy than theirs, but either way, it's a great way to get some quality time and laughs in with your loved one.

Date Idea: Look Into Your Future

By Noelle Downey

Need an idea for a fun group date night out with friends or your new fall fling? October is the month of spooky ghouls and goblins, and with Halloween approaching, there's no better time to explore the more mystical side of life...and death!

Looking to cuddle up and share a scream-filled night of fun this fall for a hauntingly good weekend date idea? Try these wonderful ways to get in touch with your spooky side!

1. Visit a psychic, and see what your future holds: This can be fun with friends or a date, and even if you don't believe in hocus pocus, you can still get a laugh. Try giving false signals or even just maintaining a serious face throughout the reading, as many fake psychics play off of your body language and reactions. See if you have the real deal in your presence.

Related Link: Date Idea: Plan a Picnic with Your Love

2. Get your tarot cards read: This is an ancient art, and can be done for couples as well as singles. See where your expectations lie, according to the cards. Maybe you'll find out a fling might be more than that very soon. Even palm readers can be a hoot! Again, if you believe in this sort of thing, then this date is obviously right up your alley, but it's still fun even if you're not a true believer.

Related Link: Date Idea: Fall in Love in New York

3. Watch a scary flick: Finish the night off by heading home to watch Ghost, a classic romantic movie filled with supernatural influences. More into the undead than ghostly figures? Try Warm Bodies, a film that combines a cute and quirky love story with plenty of gory and spooky zombie action.

Date Idea: Plan a Picnic with Your Love

By Delaney Gilbride

There aren't going to be many more days of nice weather for lovers this year. The days are growing shorter and colder, but it's not too late to take advantage of a fine fall day for one last date.

The perfect way to close out the season together before you start snuggling up fireside is to take a picnic date. It's simple, quality fun with the person you love!

Picnics are a fairly easy date to plan and execute, so it's the little touches that make the difference. Don't bring your food in a tote bag: use a real basket, and bring a gingham blanket while you're at it. Go all out! And to further create the ambiance, make a playlist on your iPod with relaxing, but upbeat tunes. Think John Mayer, Goo Goo Dolls or Colbie Caillat.

Related Link: Date Idea: Learn a New Sport Together

When it comes to food, the simpler the better. Wine or sparkling water are good bets for drinks, and finger foods are always a fun addition. Silverware can be cumbersome, so stick to fresh fruits, cheeses and the like. Hit up a local deli beforehand for good deals on side dishes and desserts! There are also easy recipes for everything from bruschetta to spinach artichoke dip. Anything that you can feed to each other makes the afternoon more fun and interactive.

Related Link: Date Idea: Take a Risk and Be Daring

What's great about a picnic is that it can even be done in your own backyard! So long as you make some time away from everyday life to have quality time together as fall comes to a close, that's all that matters. In the Santa Monica area? Check out TravelFusion for picnic ideas at Santa Monica Beach or Santa Monica Park along Ocean Avenue for some scenic picnic spots.

Date Idea: Fall in Love in New York

By Delaney Gilbride

With New York Fashion Week drawing to a close, the throngs of people that flocked to the daily theatre of the Big Apple are now returning to their everyday lives across the globe. But no one can ever quite forget a New York experience, especially when it involves love.

So this weekend, make your date night NYC-themed, and embrace all the amor even an American icon has to offer.

Central Park is a hot spot for new lovers to snuggle, picnic, play sports, and take their love public. If you don't live in New York, there may not be a big park in your neighborhood. So hitting a local or national park with "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn" will bring you right back to your big city days.

Related Link: Date Idea: Get Close with Nature

Another easy way to play the role of "New Yorker" is to eat like one! There are many classic NYC eats to try from their famous hot dogs to decadent NY cheesecake. Look up a restaurant in your area that specializes in one of these, and head there after a play! Not every town has Broadway, but a lot of plays are tested out in other metropolitan areas before they hit the Big Apple.

Related Link: Date Idea: Embrace a Physical Activity

In the Phoenix area? You can truly visit New York City without leaving your neighborhood by hitting up the local "Big Apple Restaurant" for a treat.

Date Idea: Take Love Lessons from School

By Noelle Downey

School's almost in session, folks – it's time to brush up on your romantic education, too! You can have some date nights that your favorite teacher from grade school would be proud of, and that you'll have a blast on as well. Cupid's got you covered from A to Z!

Take a tip from your school lessons with these fun weekend date ideas that will make studying a distant memory and love the first item on the assignment sheet!

1. Go Apple Picking: Looking for an apple so you can butter up your teacher? Do some apple picking! It's a fun and inexpensive way to get outdoors and walk home with a sweet treat... and maybe even snag a kiss amongst the apple branches.

Related Link: Date Idea: Take a Risk and Be Daring

2. Cheer at a High School Football Game: If sports are more your thing, head to a local high school football game. Get some buddies together and tailgate like it's the pros, and then head to the field to cheer on your true home team. After all, some high school games are an even bigger deal than the NFL, especially in small towns!

Related Link: Date Idea: Learn a New Sport Together

3. Read Something New Together: The best way to brush up on your school skills is to simply pick up a book. Join a co-ed book group, or make a date to read together in the park. Pack a picnic lunch and read on the grass.

Date Idea: Get Fit Together

By Noelle Downey

August is one of the hottest months in the US. Don't let the heat keep you in a sluggish mood: get up and go out! One of the best ways to stay fit is with your partner sweating next to you. In addition to being important to your health, staying in shape is a great way to bond with your loved one.

Ready to get fit and flirty this summer? Check out three great weekend date ideas when it comes to getting toned and tanned with your significant other this season!

1. Turn gym day into a date night: One easy way to work out together is to join a gym. Some places may offer discounted rates if you sign up together. Pick cardio machines next to each other. When you move on to strength training, take turns doing reps. Having someone there to spot you and watch your form can help you exercise more safely than doing it alone.

3. Stroll your way to success: Want a free way to stay fit? Welcome the morning with a walk around the neighborhood, or go for jog. Bring your dog for extra fun! After all, exercising together is a great way to spend quality time. Catch up with your partner, especially if the two of you spend a lot of time apart during the week because of work, school, and other responsibilities. Who's a better supporter than your partner or spouse?

Date Idea: Get Your Game On!

By Noelle Downey

Summer days are meant to be spent outside, but cooler date nights can be spent inside, or out on the patio. The games don't have to stop once the sun goes down. Get your friends together and enjoy a game night – after all, there's nothing like Twister to get to know someone new.

Ready for a competitive date night with your favorite friends and cute crush this summer? Below are the three steps you'll need to take your game night party from lame to fame!

1. Set the Mood: The key to a successful game night is to set the mood. It should be light and fun, so keep the party area colorful and well-lit. An easy indoor fix is to throw some confetti on the tables and add balloons. For outdoors, Christmas lights and tiki torches add to the atmosphere. Check out stores like Party City for deals.

Date Idea: Include the Pooch in Your Plans

By Noelle Downey

With August approaching, and the weather still heating up, we're all finding ourselves in the magical dog days of summer. Why not spend your dog days (and date nights!) with man's – and woman's – best friend? Cute puppies are the ultimate chick magnet for guys, and the perfect cuddle-buddy for girls. Find a friend with a pup, or head out with your own four-legged friend for a good time this summer.

Enjoy some fun in the sun with your favorite furry friend this summer and you'll have a great jumping off point for making conversation with other dog lovers and potential summer flings! Here are some great places to go for some pet-friendly fun this season!

1. Dog park: Embrace the outdoors and get some exercise by taking the pooch out to a dog park. Go on a walk with friends and see if you can pick up the hottie with the Labrador you passed on the trail.
