Cupid's Advice

Sure it would be great to find a perfect lover, but odds are that's not going to happen. But, Cupid has some consolation for you:

1. Everyone has faults: Everyone has their quirks, and idiosyncratic behaviors. That's what makes us human. While it's important to have key similarities with a lover, you won't agree with each other all the time.

2. Healthy Debate: A strong companionship filled with love will not damage a relationship when there are differences. In fact, it's healthy to debate issues and maintain some individuality. A good partnership allows you to accept each other regardless of your differences.

3. Differences are good: Having interests that your partner doesn't necessarily like (e.g., watching sports, going to the ballet, shopping) is not a bad thing. It will allow you and your mate some "me time," which is important to maintaining a long-term relationship.

What's Your Number? featuring Anna Faris and Chris Evans

Ally Darling (Anna Farris) can't seem to find "the one" in new movie What's Your Number? After reading a magazine article that reveals her dwindling marriage aspirations, she begins hunting down her ex-boyfriends – all 20 of them – to find out if she missed her future spouse. She brings along her mischievous neighbor (Chris Evans), who Ally is helping to avoid his exes. Based on the book "20 Times a Lady," What's Your Number? should be a romantic comedy that keeps you smiling with a typical-goofy Farris who keeps you laughing.

How do you distinguish "the one" from "the last one"?

Cupid's Advice:

It's always difficult to sort out your feelings after a breakup. Cupid has some suggestions:

- 1. Give it time: Whether it takes a week or a year, you need to get some space in order to reset your mind and feelings.
- 2. A stand-out: Once the dust settles, find out what makes your ex someone you at one point wanted to date. Also, ask yourself why things ended.

3. Think happy thoughts: If whenever you think of your former lover and you smile while reminiscing, then it's a good sign. You may want to jump back in to explore more of the relationship.
