This celebrity news has us realizing there are some good ex relationships in Hollywood after all. What are three ways to show appreciation for your child's parent?

Cupid's Advice:

Staying friendly after a divorce is not an easy feat, but if you have children, it's ideal. Co-parenting makes everyone's lives easier, parents' and children' alike. There are many ways to show appreciation for the parent of your child:

1. Hold up your end: Some divorces result in more rules and regulations than others. However it plays out, be sure to fulfill your responsibilities. Contribute the money you're supposed to, and follow the schedule to a tee. Strictly sticking to the conditions of your divorce will show respect to the parent of your child, and prevent additional issues.

2. Do a favor: Parenting is difficult; that is a universal fact. If you see the parent of your child struggling with something and you're in a position where you can help out, do it. Doing a favor for the parent of your child will help everyone involved in the long run. Just because you're no longer married doesn't mean it is right to sit back and watch your ex flounder when you can help.

3. Say “thank you”: It’s basic, but it works. Thank the parent of your child for being on time, for being a good parent to your kid, and for trying. There is no easier way to show your appreciation than to thank them.

Khalifa and celebrity ex Rose have been going through a heated break-up. What are some ways to use music to cope with your split?

Cupid's Advice:

Although not all break-ups are as bad as the split between celebrity exes Khalifa and Roses, they are still never fun and can leave you feeling down. Thankfully there are some remedies to make this heartache a little easier to handle:

1. Create a playlist that makes you want to dance: Find your favorite upbeat, happy songs that you cannot help but nod your head to or shake your foot when they come on. Putting this playlist on shuffle when you're going about your daily routine like cleaning the house or going to work will help change your mood.

2. Listen to sad break-up songs, but with a friend: Studies have showed that although wallowing in self-pity won't speed up the recovery process, talking about the break-up does. Jamming out to Taylor Swift classics while venting to a friend can lessen the initial sting of the split.

Wiz Khalifa Calls Celebrity

Ex Amber Rose a 'Foul Creature' on Twitter

By Maggie Manfredi

The hits just keep on coming! According to UsMagazine.com, celebrity exes Wiz Khalifa and Amber Rose are partaking in a pretty heated Twitter battle, and there's no end in sight. The pair filed for a celebrity divorce back in September, and it has been anything, but smooth since the split. The rapper tweeted out on Feb. 4 saying, "A woman who would do something to a kid to spite that kids father is a foul creature." These celebrity exes have repeatedly used Twitter to express their celebrity break-up feelings for the world to see.

What are some ways to keep your break-up gossip-free, unlike celebrity exes Wiz Khalifa and Amber Rose?

Cupid's Advice:

"Breaking up is hard to do," as the song goes. But Cupid has some tips on how to make it easier for yourself with less drama between you and your ex:

1. Avoid social media: Khalifa and Rose definitely didn't abide by this piece of dating advice, but it's very important to keep your dirty laundry un-aired. When you're angry, you will no doubt say some things you'll later regret, and there's really no reason to involve the public in your private disputes. Go for a walk or hit the gym if you feel the urge to complain on Twitter.

2. Consider talking to a third party: A lot of people hear the word "therapist" and think the worst, but it's not a bad idea to air your grievances to a third party instead of complaining to those around you and stirring up drama. Even if it's not an official therapist, find someone who doesn't know your story and has no investment in the outcome of your life.

3. Take steps to move on: One of the best ways to keep your break-up gossip-free is to move on instead of focusing on your heartbreak. This doesn't necessarily mean jumping into the dating pool again prematurely, but signing up for a sporting event or book club isn't a bad idea. Focusing on a new hobby will keep your mind off of the negative things happening in your life.

What are some benefits of getting married at the courthouse?

Cupid's Advice:

Getting married at a courthouse is not your traditional idea of a wedding, but there are some benefits that will outweigh the costs. What are some benefits of getting married at a courthouse? Cupid has some advice for you:

1. The cost: Getting married at your local courthouse will definitely save you money. The average cost of your traditional wedding is normally anywhere between $19,000 and $30,000. Getting married in front of a judge will save you money on a wedding dress, guest invites, venue cost, food cost and everything else that goes into a big, traditional wedding. A courthouse marriage can cost as little as $30 for the expense of a marriage license.

2. Stress: Just think about how stress-free you will be. You know when, where, how. The bride doesn't have the added stress of picking out a wedding dress and bridesmaid dresses, you don't have to stress about who to invite, and the cost is significantly lower. Without the added stress you will have the time to focus on each other.

3. Time: You also don't have to stress about time. It takes a lot less time to plan and lot less time to get married. If you have less time worrying about actually getting married, you have more time to spend with your newlywed. Also, having a courthouse wedding is a great option for couples who need to get married quickly!
