

Travel Tips: The World's Most Festive Locations to Celebrate Christmas

By Ahjané Forbes

Christmas is right around the corner, and it can be stressful planning a trip for this holiday. Here are some options for the perfect vacation destination.

If you're on the nice list, you deserve a treat this holiday. Here are some travel tips for places you should visit to spread some holiday joy:

1. Leavenworth, Washington: If you want to imagine you live in the snow globe of your childhood, then Washington is the place to be. This is a great area to visit with some friends. The state has mountains that get covered in snow every year. The streets are lit with lights, and the community is very festive with Christmas caroling and other activities. You can also go to in the local gazebo, indulge in some sledding, and go on sleigh rides.

2. Santa Claus, Indiana: "America's Christmas Hometown" is a great destination for the kids. You can go to Santa's house and enjoy the fun. Reindeer, chestnuts, and Santa's post office are all available on this trip. Your child can send a letter to Mr. Claus, and they will get an answer back!

3. New York, New York: The city that never sleeps has a lot of activities for couples. From Christmas to New Year's Eve, you and your partner can enjoy this holiday. There are tree lighting ceremonies, carriage rides through Central Park, and of course, the Macy's Day Parade. Many couples like to stay in the Big Apple until New Year's Eve to ring in the new year with a kiss.

4. Montego Bay, Jamaica: This parish is easy to get to because it has an airport. Although there will not be a reindeer in sight, you and your friends will be able to have lots of fun. You can swim with dolphins or sting rays, go snorkeling, play dominoes, swim in the pool, or golf, while also visiting nearby parishes. The country has beautiful beaches and delicious food. Tourists often like to go to Dunn's River where they are able to climb up the natural waterfall. Many of the resorts offer packages for groups that include many day trips.

5. Nassau, Bahamas: Santa might not be on this tropical island, but the kids won't mind. The white sand beaches will distract them when they're making sand castles and swimming in the clear blue water. If you feel that your child may lose some classroom engagement while they're on the trip; Nassau has some activities that will keep them up to speed. Pirates of Nassau is a museum that displays the life of the most notorious pirates. The museum has activities for both genders and tells you the history of a famous pirate named Blackbeard.

6. Kauai, Hawaii: You both can get your alone time for an affordable price during the holiday. Although the island is known for its volcanoes and culture, there are some great spots where you and your partner can get cozy. Hanalei Bay is a great place to enjoy each other's company. You can go paddle boarding or for a swim in the sea. The nearby resort offers surfboarding lessons, food tours and sightseeing. There's also a hike trail that will test your ability to work together.

Travel Tips: Top 5 Things to Do in Maui

By Mara Miller

Hawaii—probably one of the most luxurious vacation destinations we can take away from the mainland without the worry of a passport or travel visa. Whether you're going for your honeymoon or because you want your own Instagram-worthy vacay, we've gathered up some of the best things to do in Maui in these travel tips.

Check out our travel tips on the top five things to do in Maui!

Hawaii has eight major islands as it's an archipelago, so for now, we're focusing on Maui only. From hiking to a snorkel adventure, you're sure to find something to do in Maui using our travel advice. You can even find a few budget-friendly options, since a plane ticket to Hawaii can cost upwards of $2,000 if you're traveling there with your partner:

1. Road to Hana: If you're a bit strapped for cash after the hefty plane ticket, think about driving on highway 360. It's free! The Road to Hana twists through lush rain forests and gorgeous waterfalls. But, beware: the road can surprise drivers with hairpin curves. Make sure you're following the speed limit!

2. Ziplining: Fast and exciting, you'll get to fly through the trees and get an aerial view of the island. There is more than one zipline in Maui, so all you need to do is pick the one you think you and your partner will enjoy the most, meaning if you are both beginners, there's sure to be something to accommodate you both.

Travel Tips: Backpacking in Beautiful Vacation Spots

By Katie Sotack

Need a mental health break? Backpacking through the wilderness, Europe, or even a campsite nearby is an affordable way to explore outside of your usual day hiking. Greenbelly suggests it's best to decrease your pack's weight before traveling. If you've decided to hike out with your living space, food, drink, and survival gear on your back, (check GearWeAre for more), make it ultralight.

Reward your thirst for adventure and your wallet by backpacking at the next beautiful vacation spot with our travel tips for lightweight, low stakes gear carting.

As far as low-cost ways to travel go, backpacking is brilliant and versatile. The packer can commit to a quest by themselves, take arms with a group of travelers, or go off on a romantic getaway with their lover, a tent, and the stars above to a beautiful vacation spot. Whatever way the packer decides to travel the number one rule is pack light.

1. Weigh out your gear: By weighing each item before it goes in the pack you'll be able to see if said item is worth its weight. Some things will naturally be heavier, but don't throw them away for that reason alone. Your jug of water? That'll take a toll on your shoulders, but you'd be worse off dehydrating out on the trail.

Related Link: Travel Destinations: Visit the Great Smoky Mountains & Pigeon Forge

2. Sharing is caring: After weighing and packing each item, weight all the trip's backpacks. If yours is too heavy, for example, but someone else is willing to carry more, give it to them. Another tip for sharing essentials is that there doesn't need to be two of everything. Coordinate with your team to know who's bringing what. This will save the group from carrying more pocket knives than necessary. It may sound like a small, nearly weightless decision, but when you're walking all day with a ton on your back, you'll be grateful for the lessened weight.

3. Synthetic materials: When backpacking, both cotton and denim are a no go. Not only do they weigh more than synthetic materials, but they also retain water. Cotton absorbs water from the environment and your skin so those white socks will be soaking wet for a while once you accidentally step into the trail's puddle. Alternatively, synthetic materials that can be found in certain workout brands keep away sweat to keep you cool and dry.

4. Say goodbye to technology: It might be hard to step away from the internet, but disconnecting from the world wide web too many benefits to count. While the phone detox might take a day or two, the weight you'll save is worth it. Phones, GPS-s, iPods, and tablets require chargers and cases, all of which will add up. Putting down the tech, for now, will help you build your relationship with your travel companions, too!

5. Factor in the weight of your bag: We're talking about what you'll be carry in the bag, but the actual pack is just as important. This is the area to splurge. Buy a bag that's lightweight and has hip and shoulder straps. Speak to the workers at your local camping store, but be aware that backpacking bares weight on your hips. To alleviate pressure your pack should fit securely around your hips and arms with and without the weight in.

Travel Destination: Vacation

in Egypt Like Kourtney Kardashian

By Bonnie Griffin

Think outside the box next time you plan your next vacation! Egypt might not be the first travel destination on your mind, but it has a lot to offer. One glance at the marvelous Pyramids of Kourtney Kardashian's recent vacation makes it clear. Egypt is a majestic vacation destination. You can visit historic Egypt or vacation in luxury along the Red Sea. The options are all beautiful and you will be ready to go back for more. Check out our travel advice!

Take your vacation to Egypt for your next travel destination!

When you think of Egypt you likely go straight to the Pyramids. Egypt has a lot more to offer. It has majestic historic vacation sights, beautiful beaches, and exquisite cuisine. Cupid has some travel tips for places to vacation in Egypt:

1. Cairo: Cairo is the largest city in Egypt. It is close to the famous pyramids found in Giza. It is at the center of historic Egypt. If you want to visit Egypt's popular historic monuments and pyramids then Cairo is the place to stay so you can visit all the nearby historical artifacts like the Sphinx or pyramids, or travel up the Nile.

Related Link: Vacation Destinations: Forget Land & Say 'Hello' to Water

2. Alexandria: Want to see another side of historic Egypt? You should take a trip to Alexandria. The city was founded by Alexander the Great and served as the capital during two different eras in Egypt: Macedonian and Roman-ruled Egypt. It is the beautiful home to ancient monuments of both Greek and Roman design.

Travel Tips: Health Benefits of Luxury Travel

By Katie Sotack

Can luxury travel be self-care? In 2017, CNN published the article “Travel Makes Us Happy”, but as it turns out, the ignition of our senses by new experiences makes us happy. Recent wellness luxury travel has entered the market as a health trend for those who want to increase their sense of well-being. These luxury vacations aim to go beyond experiential travel, instead of immersing the traveler in the transformational experience of travel and leading to personal fulfillment.

Here are some travel tips to ensure the longevity of your growth from luxury travel.

With our culture moving toward environmentally positive retreats and service trips as ways to seek personal enlightenment, is there still room for luxury vacations to bring us happiness? Fear not, there’s still plenty of reason to enjoy the spa and beaches at a five-star hotel. Here are the perks to wellness traveling.

1. Adventure: Self-actualization sits on top of our hierarchy of psychological needs. The idea is that when we reach our true potential we leave our ego in the dust. This allows us to live more mindful lives. Luxury wellness vacations may ask you to emerge yourself in theater, hiking, or gaming in order to ignite emotions. This results in a personal transformation towards self-actualization.

Related Link: Vacation Destinations: Forget Land & Say ‘Hello’ to Water

2. Storytelling: For all our bibliophiles out there, luxury travel rips a page right out of your book (but not literally). Wellness locations immerse the traveler in epic storytelling. Like a chapter in a book, the adversity brought on to reach the end goal will inspire personal development.

3. Activity: The reason behind branding these retreats as stories where you're the protagonist is our culture's craving for choice. In the old days, vacationers desired itineraries and classes aiming to guide their journey. Now, we've moved onto mixtures of fitness, nature, cultural immersion, and health foods. These options in activities allow a sense of purposefulness and a full experience within your vacation destination.

Related Link: Vacation Destinations: Top 5 Beach Vacations

4. Digital detox: Many luxury wellness vacations will not allow electronics into their vicinity. The idea of giving up our phones for a week produces sweat beads of anxiety on our upper lips as we realize this vacation isn't for Instagram. However, the long term benefits of disconnecting far outweigh the day of mild discomfort. Embark on your spa adventure with total serenity, knowing no one can disturb you.

5. Women only: If you're a woman warrior looking to relax and grow in an area uninhabited by men look no further. Certain luxury wellness vacations cater exclusively to female empowerment. With physically, mentally, and spiritually guided activities for growth, these sessions focus on moving past trauma (like divorce, assault, etc.) and inspiring growth.

Celebrity Vacation: Make Your Anniversary Special With a Vacation Like Sofia Vergara & Joe Manganiello

By Mara Miller

Sofia Vergara and Joe Manganiello are no strangers when it comes to showing their love for each other. This celebrity couple became an item in 2014 and married the following year. Most recently, they jetted off to Positano, Italy for a celebrity vacation to celebrate their five-year dating anniversary. It's important to show your partner how much you love them and to celebrate important dates like Vergara and Manganiello, but how do you make it special?

Here is how to make your own anniversary with your partner special like Sofia and Joe's celebrity vacation dating anniversary!

Even if you decide not to jet off to Italy like Vergara and Manganiello for your own anniversary with your partner, there are still ways to make it special:

1. A mini-getaway: Celebrate your dating anniversary with your partner by whisking them off to the beach for a mini getaway, no matter what time of year. Somewhere along the beach in Virginia or the Carolinas, for example, is surprisingly tame in the off-season and you can't beat some of the great hotel prices. You might not be able to swim outside, but you'll still be able to enjoy a walk on the beach together.

Related Link: Celebrity Vacation: Jason Momoa & Lisa Bonet Explore Italy After Zoe Kravitz Wedding

2. Take them to a restaurant they've been dying to try: Has your partner been dying to try a restaurant a few states over because of their excellent ratings? Plan a day to drive them to a restaurant they've always wanted to try, but haven't tried yet because it's either too far or too pricey. If it's a higher-end restaurant, you might want to save for it, but it will be worth it to spend the night dining with your partner.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Visit the Grand Canyon

3. Save up for a larger vacation: Has your partner really wanted to travel to Europe, but you've just never had the time or money to travel? Why not save up and go on your anniversary? It can be anywhere in the world—Italy,

France, England, Spain—the possibilities are endless. Just be sure to check travel guidelines in the country you're planning to visit because some may require a tourist travel visa and your passport will need to be valid for so many months before you can enter the country. Flights can be up to $2000 dollars as well, so you'll want to start planning with a budget that will allow you to cover flight costs as well as lodging and a rental vehicle.

4. Rent a cabin for the weekend: If your sweetie is more of the outdoorsy type, renting a cabin for the weekend is a way to have a home away from home. Some cabins will even let you bring your dog(s)! Cozy up by a great fire if it's for winter, or explore activities in the area like hiking or other sight-seeing options.

5. Take a craft or cooking class: Nothing brings people together like food or learning a new craft. The options on what kind of craft are endless, from decorative crafts with pottery making or a decorative craft like painting stained glass. Not the best cooks together? A cooking class can help you and your partner learn more about the art of making food, from the basics of putting together a batch of pretzels to cooking your own gourmet meal. No matter what you choose, it's sure to be special, and make you and your partner closer!

Travel Trend: Micro-cations

By Emily Green

Everyone needs a break from their day to day life, and a vacation is a perfect way to do so! Some people, especially millennials, can't afford to take a week or two off work or to shirk other commitments for the luxury vacation have been dreaming about. In an attempt to get a break, micro-cations—a vacation no longer than four nights—have become the most popular travel trend to get out of the office to any beautiful vacation spots of your choice.

Micro-cations seem to be a popular and easy travel trend among millennials. What are some benefits to taking a micro-cation rather than a vacation?

We've gathered a list of reasons why you might want to plan a micro-cation instead of a vacation. Check out these travel

tips if a mini getaway seems doable (and affordable!)

1. You get some time away: No matter how long you go on a trip, you still get a break from any stress, work, or drama. Soak up every ounce of your trip and enjoy every minute of it! Try new things, go on new adventures, and you'll come back with stories that you'll be telling for years to come.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Travel Solo

2. You miss less while you're away: By only taking a trip for a couple of days, you are guaranteed to miss less from any work or responsibilities you might have than if you went on a trip that lasted a week or longer. If you're dedicated to your work but know you need a break, a micro-cation is the perfect way to give yourself that break and get back to work in record time.

Related Link: Travel Tips: How to Plan a Debt-Free Vacation

3. Saves money: You might be worried about affording a vacation within the means of your budget. A micro-cation is the perfect way to give yourself your dream vacation in small doses. You can still get that luxurious vacation you've always wanted for a cheaper price by shortening your trip by a few days.

4. Take a load off from responsibility: Asking your workplace to take off for only two days instead of a week is more appealing to your employers. They know you are needed at your job but can understand that you need a PTO every now and then. You'll be able to get that much-needed vacation and get back to your regular day to day life after you're refreshed in no time.

Product Review: MBTBUDS Wireless Bluetooth Earbuds for the Beach!

By Mara Miller

Summertime is here, and that means...THE BEACH! We all have essentials we need when packing for a summer getaway like towels, bathing suits, snacks, and shoes. Tiny travel tip: if you're even slightly attached to your phone, you'll want it next to you while you soak up the sun and the fresh sea air. While some phones have waterproofing, who would want to risk getting their expensive piece of tech caught in a tide? And, let's not even mention the havoc seawater could wreak on your laptop's delicate internals if you want to enjoy the latest Taylor Swift or Katy Perry singles.

Wireless earbuds are a great option when you need a getaway to the beach. In this product review, check out the McAlley Wireless Earbuds so you can safely keep your tech tucked away from the water.

These Bluetooth earbuds are unique because they are magnetized. They sit together around your neck like a necklace so you can take a jog on the beach or play volleyball without worrying about losing them. They are turned off when they're magnetized. When un-magnetized, the earbuds turn on.

Related Link: Product Review: My Ever Map

You might need to give the earbuds a few seconds to pair with your device before you can use them. This is normal for any Bluetooth device, so be patient. They're lightweight and won't weigh you down like heavier wireless over-the-ear headphones, which might not fare as well at the beach.

Even better: these wireless earbuds are water resistant. You might not be able to go into the ocean with them, but you can at least enjoy digging your toes into the wet sand while waves splash over your feet. In everyday use, during either your commute to work or jogging, they will also resist water if it rains.

The earbuds have eight hours of talk time, six hours of playtime, and 150 hours of standby time. The package comes with three earbud sizes so they are comfortable while you wear them. They charge in one to two hours through MicroUSB.

These MBTBUDS Wireless Bluetooth Earbuds are $60 and can be purchased on Amazon.

Travel Tips: Must-Taste Group Food Crawl Stops in San Francisco

The food culture in San Francisco is pretty wide-ranging, going from the basest of restaurants for burgers to vegan places that can cook up a storm. With a food culture as strong as this, it's begging for a proper food crawl to happen. And when you have a large group of friends and a day which is free to explore your taste buds further, there can't be any better opportunity.

One of the things you'd have to figure out is transportation, since, San Francisco does get quite crowded. For this, you can get bus rentals in San Francisco. This will allow you to plan activities as you travel and also look at the menu to prepare your own tasting versions that you can test. The kind of bus you'll get would depend on the number of people you're bringing and the places you want to visit. And to figure out the latter, you just have to see our list.

Check out these travel tips on the best food stops to visit in San Francisco:

1. Liholiho yacht club

A Hawaiian, Californian and Chinese restaurant managed by an Indian person, the Liholiho Yacht Club has always been a bit left of center. With an alluring minimalist decor and some of the most surprising dishes in town, this is the place to be if you want something upscale. We recommend the duck liver roast, which comes with some flavors that don't seem to go together but, work immensely well. Remember to book reservations way in advanced, since this Hamilton bistro can be reserved for a long time. Remember the cardinal rule of a food crawl even though the food here is delicious, eat a variety of dishes, but, never eat your fill completely.

2. Cala

You can't enjoy San Francisco without having one of their trademark Mexican food plates, and Cala does it better than anyone else. Check out the beautiful decor that comes straight out of the streets of Mexico and then enjoy one of their trademark Tostadas as you dig in. You will experience pure authentic Mexican cuisine here, since, the chef hails from the capital of Mexico herself and has been serving up a storm back at the Mexican capital too. Take up small tasting plates of finger food here and move on.

3. Tartine Manufactory

We're yet to meet a first-time visitor to Tartine Manufactory who hasn't been in complete awe. The restaurant boasts of everything from a fully functional bakery to a wine bar. Check out the freshly baked bread, and partake in some of the savory dishes from the restaurant (the Sea trout roe comes highly recommended) and make your way to the ice cream counter for a personal happy ending to a whole meal for each person of your group. Remember to partake of some of the wine selections too.

4. Spruce

Spruce is what five-star dining is supposed to be. Elegant but not stuffy, and just the right amount of fancy to make it all worth it. Spruce holds a distinction in being true to the Californian cuisine even now, bringing up some of the local dishes in the best way possible. Check out their roasted duck breast and whole meals for a satisfying experience. For this hot spot, book ahead because the seats tend to fill up fast.

5. State Bird Provisions

The eclectic flavors in Dim Sum forms are what State Bird Provisions excel in. While, this 45-seater restaurant has got rave reviews from every corner, what really clinches the place as a must is the fact that they pair up the most impossible of things just to get ahead. Check out the unusual pairings and book way ahead for the seats here, making sure that you don't miss the delicacies that are offered.

Travel Tips: 10 Things Not to Miss at WonderWorks Myrtle Beach

As the summer temperatures heat up, many families will be looking for ways to keep cool. They will also want to entertain, make memories and keep their kids active. One good way to do that is to visit WonderWorks in Myrtle Beach, where parents can find four levels of nonstop indoor fun, offering plenty of opportunities for people of all ages.

“Most people are familiar with the outside of our building, but they are not familiar with what goes on inside it,” says Robert Stinnett, the regional manager at WonderWorks. “The neat thing is that what we offer on the inside is every bit as interesting and unique. We are here for all ages to experience laughter, fun, and joy by diving into history, science and releasing energy with our interactive exhibits!”

With these travel tips, check out 10 things you don't want to miss at WonderWorks Myrtle Beach:

1. Climb. Hit up the ropes course, where guests can test their endurance and locomotor skills as they climb over 28 different obstacles and physical activities in this three-story indoor course.

2. Throw. Take your chance at virtual sports, where you can find out what it's like to pitch to a Major League Baseball player or throw a touchdown pass 50 yards to an NFL player. Virtual Sports allows you to test your athletic skills on a baseball, football, and soccer field.

3. Ride. Take a seat within the virtual coaster with the ability to turn 360° in every direction. Hold on to your seats while experiencing virtual physics! You can also feel the sensation of weightlessness like in outer space on the Astronaut Training Gyro Challenge.

4. Play. Hit up the sandbox and bubble lab! Explore the depths of the ocean, a Jurassic landscape, and a wildlife safari in an interactive sandbox. Interact with various creatures with your hands and mold the sand by building mountains, volcanoes and much more! You can also create bubbles the size of basketballs, and even make a bubble big enough for you to fit inside.

5. Learn. Test your knowledge about our world's natural disasters. Show what you know and more from such categories as wild weather, quakes and blazes, manmade catastrophes and extreme disasters.

6. Imagine. Enter a new dimension of reality and explore the unknown. Visit Dr. Seuss Taxidermy, where the famous author's creations come to life. Discover how perception and perspective are used in over 35 exhibits located throughout the Far Out Art Gallery where the unexplainable will come to life and the unusual will be the norm.

7. Thrill. Enjoy the 12-seat theater that takes guests on an amazing adventure that transcends time, space, and imagination by combining the 3D film with special effects and full motion. Now playing 5 different movies: Cosmic Coaster-Mild, Wild Wild West- Moderate, Great Wall of China-Moderate, Dino Safari- Wild or Canyon Coaster-Wild.

8. Adrenaline. Take the zipline challenge, where you will soar 50 feet above the water and 1,000 feet between towers. This features a constant tension system, which ensures participants a smooth "zip" with intense fun.

9. Extreme. Check out 360 Bikes, where you will buckle into your bike and start pedaling. You will try to generate enough power to spin a complete 360-degree revolution right back to where you started.

10. Interact. Get interactive with laser tag! This family fun game combines innovative technology to provide you with a one-of-a-kind interactive experience. The object is to outplay, outlast and outshoot the other players.

"WonderWorks is happy to support energy in motion – we want our guests to feel like each time they come to us, not only are they having a blast, they are using their mind to learn and interact physically with our many hands-on exhibits," added Stinnett. "Make some fun family memories right here at WonderWorks Myrtle Beach."

WonderWorks in Myrtle Beach offers 50,000 square feet of "edutainment" opportunities, showcasing itself as an amusement park for the mind. They offer over 100 hands-on exhibits covering natural disasters, space discovery, an imagination lab, a physical challenge zone, a far-out art gallery, and a light and sound zone. WonderWorks is open daily from 10 a.m. until 11:30 p.m. For more information, log onto WonderWorks' website.

Vacation Destinations: Forget Land & Say 'Hello' to Water

By Bonnie Griffin

Looking for your next exciting vacation destination? Consider leaving land behind and taking to the water on a cruise. One of the best things about a cruise is that you often don't have to decide on just one location. Many boats travel to numerous locations and they include drinks, food, and entertainment for your pleasure all on board.

Not sure where your next vacation destination should be? Perhaps it's time to consider a cruise.

Cruises offer many options and the best part is that many of them operate year-round. After all, it's still hot in the Bahamas in December. Cupid's has some inspiration for your next cruise:

1. Fun for any sized group: Whether you're traveling with a group of friends and family or taking a solo vacation, a cruise has plenty of fun options for everyone. Many cruises have games and entertainment, such as shows, right on board. You will find family-friendly entertainment in addition to adults-only, like casinos and comedy nights. All of this can be found on the ship before the myriad of adventures begin at each port!

2. So many options: You might find yourself thinking you don't want to just visit an island in the Bahamas. That's not a problem. Cruises travel all around the world to places like Alaska, Switzerland, the Caribbean, and the Netherlands. Some cruises even visit more than one of these great locations all on one vacation, so your options are nearly limitless.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Pocket Friendly U.S. Travel Destinations

3. Your vacation, your choice: Whether your vacation is for three days or two weeks, cruises have options that will fit within your timeline and budget. You have less than a full week's vacation time at work, no problem. Take a three-day cruise to the Bahamas. Planning to take off work for two weeks? Great! You can travel to Alaska or Greece. Cruises offer vacations to fit many different time constraints and budgets, so you are bound to find a trip that works for you.

Vacation Destinations: Underrated Vacation Locations

By: Emily Green

It's finally June, which means it's officially summer! Summer is the prime time for people to relax and try new things, like checking out new destinations for vacation. While most people tend to think of relaxing on tropical islands or Florida beaches, or heading on a trip to spot your favorite celebrity, there are plenty of less obvious places all around the United States where you can travel and experience new and exciting adventure.

There are plenty of fun and exciting new places you can go to on vacation! Here are Cupid's top five underrated vacation destinations:

1. Sedona, Arizona: Beaches not your thing? Try heading out to Sedona for some hiking in the beautiful, picturesque red rock cliffs. After hiking, the town of Sedona is full of relaxing day spas, bed and breakfasts, and small shops that you can go through- relaxing at its finest! Once you're ready to head out again, if you want to visit the Grand Canyon, it is only a 2 hour drive from Sedona, making Sedona the perfect place to stay on your vacation!

Related Link: Travel Tips: Visit the Grand Canyon

2. Fire Island, New York: If you're looking for a place to relax for the weekend, Fire Island is the perfect place to stay. Only about an hour and a half drive outside of New York City, Fire Island offers long stretches of beautiful beaches, a scenic lighthouse, and many resorts and shops. Whether you're looking for a simple weekend away or a special trip, Fire Island has everything you could possibly need.

3. Annapolis, Maryland: Annapolis is a great place to visit, especially if you're a history buff. Home to the US Naval Academy, the Banneker-Douglass Museum and State House and much more, Annapolis is a key place to learn about the history of Maryland. After exploring the different monuments and landmarks, enjoy a cruise on one of the tour boats on the Chesapeake Bay or on one of the surrounding rivers. Once your tour is through, you can get some of Maryland's infamous fresh crab, and can learn just how much Marylanders love old bay on their crabs (and everything else).

4. Nashville, Tennessee: As the capital of country music, Nashville has everything a country music lover could ever want. See a show at the Grand Ole Opry or take a tour of the Country Music Hall of Fame. You never know who you might see! Aside from the awesome country music spots, you can take a trolley tour of the town to see all of the historical spots and landmarks the town has to offer. Afterward, try the Nashville Pub Crawl (if you are of age) and get a taste of what nightlife is like in this country-filled town.

5. Charleston, South Carolina: Another place for a great taste of the south is Charleston, SC. Ranked America's #1 small city, there's a bit of everything for everyone in this small city. The bustling French Quarter and Battery Districts are great places to get a taste of typical life in Charleston, from the shops to the amazing views and scenery. Charleston also has a lot of history, with the Fort Sumter National Monument finding home in Charleston's harbor, a short boat ride for an amazing tour. After, make sure you stop by the University of South Carolina for a football game. Go Gamecocks!

Travel Destinations: Visit

the Great Smoky Mountains & Pigeon Forge

By Mara Miller

Summertime is here! That means it's a fantastic time to choose a travel destination like Pigeon Forge and to explore The Great Smoky Mountains in Tennessee. The area is rich in Appalachian history, especially up in the Smokies where you can still find old cabins, such as the Tipton Place homestead, settled in the 1820s by Revolutionary War veteran William "Fighting Billy" Tipton. After you're done exploring the Smokies, you can spend a few nights in Pigeon Forge, where there are a variety of fun things to do and explore.

Searching for great travel tips and travel advice? Make the Great Smoky Mountains and Pigeon Forge your next travel destination!

Great Smoky Mountains:

Part of the precious Appalachian Mountain Trail, the Great Smoky Mountain National Park in Tennessee is a part of the chain that expands through 18 states. The mountains have been around for thousands of years, dating back to Paleo Indians to European settlers. Established as a national park in 1934, more than 1,200 people had to leave their land once it was established. The park is important in preserving the thriving forest and wildlife.

1. Cades Cove: Cades Cove is an 11-mile road that is great to explore early in the mornings if you want to sight wildlife. Animals you'll see are turkeys, white-tailed deer, black bears, coyotes, and rabbits. It still has three churches, a working grist mill, barns, log houses, and many other restored 18th and 19th century buildings. You can hike or bike the back-country, too! Just keep in mind that the road opens to motor vehicles at 10:00 am.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Three Historical Colonial Towns You Need to Visit

2. Horseback riding: If you love horses, then you may want to ride one of the trails in the Smokies. You can book a guided horse ride, hay ride, or take a carriage or wagon ride. There are even five drive-in horse camps so you can explore with your own horse. Riding a horse is a great way to experience nature in the mountains. Just keep in mind that horses are restricted to areas designated only for horse use.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Top Five Romantic Spots in the Bluegrass State

3. Picnicking: Are you looking for an excuse to have a romantic getaway? Grab your partner and go for a picnic in the Smokies! Just be sure to prepare for your picnic before you head into the park. There are specific areas designated for picnics and you should always be sure to never feed the wildlife.

Related Link: Travel Tips: Pocket Friendly U.S. Travel Destinations

4. Camping: Camping is another great way to experience the Smokies this summer. Whether you're bringing camping gear or an RV, spending a few nights in the mountains will give you a chance to unwind from everyday life. The campgrounds have running water and flushing toilets in the front-country, but back-country may not offer these amenities and you must have a permit and must call ahead of time if you are planning on hiking to your camp destination.

Pigeon Forge:

Surrounded by the Smoky Mountains with a history dating back before the Revolutionary War, Pigeon Forge was once a small farming community before it became a mountain city.

1. Dollywood: Need we say more? With the Smoky Mountains as a backdrop to this theme park, Dollywood is home to some of the South's largest festivals. It has more than 40 rides and attractions such as Wild Eagle, FireChaser Express, and Lightning Rod (the world's fastest roller coaster). They even have a water park!

2. Go-karts and mini-golf: Pigeon Forge is surrounded by go-karts and mini-golf. It has more than 10 different tracks to choose from, including one that is Nascar themed. Mini-golf is another fun option for your family, especially if your children are little and don't want to go to the go-karts.

3. Shows: Don't leave Pigeon Forge without checking one of their shows out! You can experience live music and country dancing at Country Tonight Theatre and The Smoky Mountain Opry, comedy at The Comedy Theatre Barn or you can find some family-friendly dinner shows like Pirates Voyage Dinner and Show.

There are a lot of great things to do in Pigeon Forge and the Smokies. Have we missed anything you love to do when you visit? Let us know in the comments below!

Travel Tips: Visit the Grand Canyon

By Mara Miller

The Grand Canyon is a great place to visit if you're searching for travel tips! Located primarily in Arizona, it also borders Utah and Nevada. The canyon itself is 227 miles long, 18 miles wide, and more than a mile deep. It has been the home to Native Americans for 10,000 years and has a rich archaeological history. Today, it is a national park with hiking, mule rides, river tours, and bicycling.

There's a lot to do if you're going to visit the Grand Canyon! Follow these travel tips as you plan your trip:

1. Mule Rides: If you're comfortable with riding a mule and want to experience the Grand Canyon's beauty. Keep in mind that if you want to go on a mule ride you must book your trip 15 months in advance (so start planning early!). There is a waiting list but it is not guaranteed that you'll get to go on a mule ride if someone else cancels their trip. There are specific mule ride restrictions depending on which rim you decide to go to so be sure to check that before you make reservations.

2. Day Hiking: Hiking The Grand Canyon is an option if riding a mule doesn't seem appealing because of the long wait. If you're a more experienced hiker and want to go down farther into the canyon for a night stay you may need a backcountry permit, but a day hike does not have the same requirements. It's recommended that you keep plenty of water on you. It's a great way to take in the fresh air and enjoy the beauty of the canyon, though!

3. River Trips: You can get on a raft and take a guided tour on the river for one day up to twenty-one days depending on the tour that you choose. You may need a river permit depending on the type of trip and how many days you will be on the river. If it's for more than a day then you may need to apply for a river permit a year in advance.

4. Bicycling: The trail is one of the best parts in the canyon for cycling. You can bring your own bike or rent a bike to take a ride on the Hermit Road Greenway Trail. It follows the canyon rim for seven miles although beware that there are some places where it crosses the main road. Bikes must obey all traffic laws in Arizona.

Travel Tips: Three Historical Colonial Towns You Need to Visit

By Mara Miller

It's time to take a step back in time and explore preserved colonial towns in the U.S. Though you can find groups of colonial homes built in the 16th and 17th centuries in both Alexandria, VA and Philadelphia, PA, there are some colonial towns are still mostly preserved with one-lane roads and homes that date back to original settlers. Consider taking our travel advice and visiting gems like this, which are located in the original 13 colonies.

Check out our travel tips for three close-to-original towns you may want to explore that were a part of the original colonies!

1. Strawberry Banke, NH: Strawberry Banke was one of the first settlements in America north of Massachusetts. In the 17th century, it was a safe-haven for those fleeing from religious prosecution. Later renamed Portsmouth, The Treaty of Portsmouth was signed in 1713. In 1774, Paul Revere took a ride—and although this one is much less famous than the one he made four months later, it is still pretty neat to realize how significant this settlement was during the American Revolution when colonists chose to separate from England. The settlement has been left relatively untouched, with Pitt Tavern, Stoodley's Tavern, and Sherburne House being the oldest buildings in Strawberry Banke.

2. Deerfield, MA: Deerfield is a town that time forgot by the 19th century. It was one of the earliest major inland settlements in New England, nestled between English, French, and native territory. The town was destroyed by a marauding army under the French in 1704. However, it was later rebuilt and eventually forgotten by the time of the American Revolution. Being a town that time forgot was a blessing, however, because it is nearly pristine to this day with highlights like the Hall Tavern (1760), and the Allen, Ashley, and Williams houses that were built in the 1730s. Some buildings are private residences, however, so keep that in mind when you visit!

3. Williamsburg, VA: Popularly called Colonial Williamsburg, it was founded as the village of Middle Plantation in 1632. It replaced Jamestown as the colonial capital by 1698. Williamsburg was the first town to be fully planned in America and the second to have a college. Today, it is seen as one of the world's largest living museums. You can interact with those who dress as they did in the 1700s and rent a room on-site at an inn or at one of the Colonial Houses and experience historic reenactments. It is generally considered one of the best living museums in America. (They even have a romantic getaway package!)
