Dating Advice: How To Attract A Man Through Your Body Language

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert and author of The Power of Women Over Men and How to Use It Nick Karson to talk expert dating advice on how to show a man you're interested in him through your body language.

Dating Advice On Attracting A Man Through Your Body Language

Dating is not easy, but expert dating advice says one of the best ways to show a man that you're attracted to him is through your body language. Experts say your body language can say more to a man than you ever could. Their three best dating tips are to smile, hold eye contact, and lean into his personal space a bit.

1. Smile. One of the biggest things you can do to show a man that you're interested, is to smile. It's a green light because men are so nervous and want to say hi, but don't always feel comfortable. If you can hold his gaze and give him a sweet smile, it makes you approachable.

2. Holding his eye contact for 2-3 seconds. Doing this shows that you're listening and are engaged in the conversation.

3. Lean in. Go into his personal space a beat and lean in when you're talking to him. When women do that little hair toss, it shows men that you like them.

Dating Advice: First Date Do's and Don'ts

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert and author of 121 First Dates Wendy Newman to talk expert dating advice on first date do's and don'ts.

Dating Advice: First Date Tips

Dating experts acknowledge that it can take awhile to find the man of your dreams, but they have some dating tips on how to act on a first date.

- 1. Show up natural. Be yourself and don't have an agenda. Throw away that checklist and don't prequalify the person you're dating.
- 2. Get to know each other. Show up and try to get to know who the person is. Find out what they love and what they're passionate about.

3. Be clear if you don't like him. Be gracious and pleasant, but don't act happy and flirty only to say no to a second date or dodge his calls.

4. Don't be negative. A first date is not the time to complain about your day at work, your parents, your friends, or even an ex. Be positive and pleasant to be around.

5. Don't talk about the long term future on a first date. Women think they're serious and that men date for sport. But it's just the way that you approach dating that's different. Men realize that a first date is just a first date. It's a baby step. Expert dating advice: Don't go into it trying to find your husband. Just try to get to know each other.

Expert Dating Advice: What Men Want & Why They Cheat

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima turns the conversation over to relationship expert and author of "The Problem With Women...is Men," Charles J. Orlando to talk expert dating advice about none other than men, what they want, and why they cheat.

Dating Advice On What Men Want & Why They Cheat

Men want women who are confident, intelligent, energetic, honest, and supportive. Men respond to women who bring confidence to the table, but that is not to be mistaken with being a bitch. "Confidence is knowing who you are, it's knowing where you're going, and it's knowing who's going with you," Orlando said. He also wants someone he can talk with, not talk at. Sometimes a woman's intelligence can be troublesome to men if it's greater than his own. When women are smarter men have to be comfortable with that. Some men don't know their place as anything other than being a protector/provider, so it forces them to find their new masculine. But Orlando did note, a man doesn't open a door for a woman because he thinks she's incapable, he opens the door because he values you. Men also want someone who is energetic and spontaneous, so Orlando's dating advice is to bring excitement to the relationship. He wants these things to remain throughout the relationship. Spontaneity is often the first to go, Orlando said, but men want to keep it.

Related Link: Dating Advice: Get Inspired by Childhood Funn

Men cheat for a variety of reasons, but Orlando said, "before physical act of betrayal, the relationship has already broken down." There is something missing in the relationship even before the inception of an affair. But what is it exactly that compels men to cheat? One, the opportunity to have sex without getting caught, which also caters to physical/sexual gratification that is emotionally detached. Two, he wants to have sexual variety. He's curious about being with someone he found physically attractive. Three, for the thrill of the chase. He misses that challenge and wants to know he's still got it. And finally, the desire to feel important or feel special. He wanted a ego boost because he wasn't getting it at home. "For any wife who won't there's a neighbor who will," Orlando said.

Relationship Advice: How and Where To Meet Men

On this week's Single in Stilettos video, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima and dating expert Marni Kinrys give relationship advice on how and where to meet the man of your dreams.

Relationship Advice On How To Meet 'The One'

Meeting 'the one' can seem like an impossible task, but this expert love advice will have you dating someone new in no time. To start, the experts say that you have to put yourself out there. Having a social life requires work and effort.

Delegate one day a week where you will do something that will put you in a position to meet a man. Whether that be having a dinner party for singles, going to a bar, going to a singles event, joining a running club for singles, or online dating, there are so many places to meet someone new.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice On How To Handle Dating A Player

Remember, it's important to be active and do more than two things to meet someone. Men (and women) are everywhere, it's just a matter of opening your eyes and looking around. Women: Don't be afraid to approach a man and just say hi. If he's interested, he'll take the lead from there. The biggest confusion and misconception is that people don't want to be approached.

You can even start a conversation with someone on the subway or at the grocery store. Just opening yourself up to any and all opportunities will help you find the man of your dreams. Follow this relationship advice, because the only way you can have people in your life, is to be open to it.

Expert Dating Advice: Three Signs He Is Unavailable

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks about the language of love with relationship expert Nicole Moore who provides dating advice on the three defining ways men show you that they are unavailable for a relationship.

Expert Dating Advice: Three Signs He is Unavailable

Similar to many readers, relationship problems are not foreign to the dating experts. For Moore, to solve her own woes and to provide others with dating advice, she developed a knack for love. “After enough pain, I got fed up and thought ‘I’m going to figure out how to make love work’ and I devoted my life to learning about love, how to love well and I figured out love is skill like anything else. It’s a learnable skill,” the expert shares. “When you know how to do the skill of love right you can have an amazing loving relationship.” Here are three signs that the guy you’re in to just isn’t available.

1. He tells you. If he says he isn’t looking for a relationship, or work is his priority, or his profile states that he’s just looking for friends and fun, take the hint. Regardless of these overt cues, women think he will commit to a loving relationship with them. “Look at what he is saying rather than what you are desiring or the fantasy that you made up in your mind,” Moore says. Pay attention to him and the way he talks about relationships; if he shows any of the signs above, it is very unlikely that man is available to you for a relationship.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 5 Tips for Bunny Hopping Yourself into Romance

2. Is he present? When you’re with him what’s his energy like? Is it focused on you? Is he uncomfortable? Is he looking around, checking his phone and making you feel as if he isn’t fully with you? “The reason people aren’t present on the deeper level is because there is stuff inside of them they haven’t dealt with yet. They can’t hang out in their body, they have to go to their heads,” Moore says. Dating tip: Once he faces enough of his inner demons, he’ll make you feel like you’re the only two in the room and he’s ready to make the two of you a happy item.

3. How does he talk about women in general? If he talks negatively about women or talks negatively about his acts in the past he's not ready for you yet. He is either not over his exes or could have preconceived notions of women that are unfavorable and these two factors will prevent him from giving himself to you fully or at all. "He's going to hold himself back because he's actually afraid that women are going to hurt him," Moore reveals.

Expert Dating Advice On How To Handle Dating A Player

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks dating advice with relationship expert Robert Manni. Speaking from a guy's perspective, Manni provides dating advice on dating a player and how to know if you're looking into the eyes of one.

Relationship Expert Talks Dating Advice: How To Handle Dating A Player

When women think of a player, oftentimes they think they can change them, but Manni says otherwise. "I certainly think anybody can evolve and I don't think that it's the women's responsibility to change a man," he says. "I think you can lead the horse to water but he has to drink. So a man has to want to change and he has to want to change for the right reason. If a woman is there to support him in his desire to be the best he can be that's the best case scenario."

1. Signals of a player. On your first date, does he have something planned? Does he pick up the check...does he pick up anything other than his phone? Did he ask you out in person or over the phone, as in speaking on the phone? If a majority of your answers are no, chances are this guy is at the plate ready to bat.

Related Link: Celebrity Interview: Blake Cooper Griffin Gives Relationship Advice & Says, "Don't be Reckless with Other People's Hearts"

2. Get to know him better. As Manni says, "Text only gives you a portion of what that other person is." As a woman, you have to speak up. Tell him you want to talk over the phone, tell him you want to get to know him better. But don't demand it, put the idea on the table in a flirty, playful way. "Regardless of the situation when a man and woman first meet each other they have to take the time and prioritize the need to learn about the other person," Manni says.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: What is Love and How Do I Find It?

3. Be yourself. When competing against the model types and the classic womanizers, the only way to stand out for men and women alike is to be your authentic self and to be confident in who you are.

Providing guys with a guide to love in his book, Manni now offers women his best dating tip from the man's perspective: "The things that every guy seeks in women is somebody who understands him and is supportive of what their ambition, goal, or dream is. And if you can make the man feel that you believe in them they will be putty in your hands."

Dating Advice: How To Flirt With A Little Touch

In this week's Single in Stilettos episode, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks dating advice with Patty Contenta, founder of Sensuality Secrets, about how to get sensual with a little touch. Professional ballroom dancer turned relationship expert, Contenta adapted her smooth moves from the dance floor to the playground of dating to turn heads and even get an encore in the form of a date. “I was this really sultry, mysterious, alluring woman and I wondered if I could be this in everyday life and if that would help me in my dating scenario,” Contenta says.

Relationship Experts Talk Dating Advice On Flirting

1. Touch any item on him you enjoy. It can be his watch, tie, even the lapels on his jacket, Contenta says. Acknowledge these things and compliment them. Perhaps even get him to share the story behind these items. But touching rather than simply asking will leave an imprint.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice on How to Flirt With Men

2. Touch his extremities. A great dating tip from Contenta: Extremities are a safe zone. His shoulder, arm, wrist, hand. The simple physical connection between your hands can calm him, make him feel comfortable, and it shows that you appreciate him and what he has to say.

3. Touch his lower back. Touching a guy’s lower back as you walk by is a great way to make him remember you. Contenta shares the dating advice that the higher back is safer than the lower, but this touch will come naturally as the chemistry develops.

For her best piece of dating and relationship advice, Contenta says: Eye contact, smiling, self touch. “I’m here, I’m present, I’m in my feminine, and I’m with you,” she adds.

Expert Dating Advice: Signs That He's Not Interested in You

On this week's Single in Stilettos relationship advice video, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to dating expert Tinzley Bradford about signs that he's not interested in you. Don't miss their expert dating advice!

Is He Interested in You? Use This Dating Advice to Find Out

Here are three signs that he's just not into you:

1. He doesn't call, text, or hang out with you: It's simple: He'll pursue you if he likes you. "If you're dating a man and he's interested in you, you don't have to keep begging him," Bradford says. Oshima also encourages you to be wary of guys who disappear after a night together; they're just using you as a "filler."

2. He uses a dry, dull tone: There's no engagement when you're talking. He may even be short with you. "There's going to be laughter... There's going to be fun times," the dating expert says of someone who's interested in you. And if he's on his phone while you're together? That's another red flag!

3. You haven't met his family or friends: Be careful if the relationship is one-sided. "You don't know anything about him...because he hasn't told you anything about him," Bradford explains. If he likes you, he'll bring you into his world.

Expert Dating Advice: The Help You Need to Find Love

On this week's episode of the Single in Stilettos show, founder of the dating advice site and matchmaker Susanne Oshima chats with intimacy and relationship coach Iris Benrubi to discuss why, even though you're doing everything you can to find love, it's just not working.

Dating Advice to Help You Find Love

As a counseling psychologist, Benrubi set out on a mission to help others become emotionally intimate with themselves, which in turn allows them to foster more deeply connected relationships. In the video above, she shares her three best pieces of dating advice to help you find The One:

1. Do what you love: By going out and doing what you love, you might just meet someone who loves doing the same thing. “If you can actually learn to go out there and do things that you love and have a great life and be open to meeting a man in those situations, not only will you attract a healthier man, but you’ll also attract a man with the same qualities you have,” the dating expert explains. In doing so, you’ll appear to be a whole and satisfied woman, which will attract a fulfilled man. A guy doesn’t want to feel responsible for your happiness; instead, he wants to be the one who enhances it. Or as Benrubi says, “He wants to be the icing on the cake, but he doesn’t want to be the cake.”

Related Link: Kris Jenner Gives Her Best Dating Advice

2. Notice how you communicate with a man: Complaining? Again? If he hasn’t already tuned you out, he’s going to – and then, your relationship may become a thing of the past. Men don’t want to listen to complaints; they want to feel valued in their relationship. Focus on what he does well and make it known to him that he is succeeding with you. “If you want a good man to hang around, you want to let him know he’s making a difference to the quality of your life,” Benrubi shares.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice on How To Flirt With Men

3. Get in touch with your feminine side: A woman needs to let down her masculine walls to allow a potential partner, the bearer of masculinity, to step in and contribute to her life. The dating expert explains that single women often become too self-sufficient, taking on both masculine and feminine roles. As a woman in a relationship, allow the masculine behaviors to be passed on to your special someone. Ask him to help you lift that heavy box or change that light bulb – he'll get fulfillment, and you get to watch!

Expert Dating Advice On How To Flirt With Men

In this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder of the dating advice site and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima sat down with dating and flirting expert, Tracey Steinberg to share tips on how to flirt with men.

Dating Advice On Flirting With Men

Civil litigation attorney turned dating expert, Steinberg knows a thing or two about men, love and how to get him to fall in love by the power of flirting. "Flirting is one of life's greatest pleasures and if you're missing out on it that's a shame," Steinberg says. "As women it's our right to flirt, let's not give that up." Below are a few of her tips on how to flirt with men!

1. Eye contact. Flirting is about nonverbal language and your inner voice shines through your eyes. Show him you're interested in him by making strong eye contact, while keeping the spoken conversation light and fun.

Related Link: Dating Expert Gives Five Body Language Cues to Look for on a First Date

2. Complement freely. Confident men love to be around women who make them feel confident and who support what makes them so confident. A great piece of dating advice: men love being complimented just as much as women. Steinberg said men swoon over compliments about features like their biceps, because they work out routinely waiting for a cute girl to notice.

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice About Dating Traps to Avoid

3. Align yourself with his passions. If you're talking about what he loves, he's going to love talking to you. Maybe the conversation will continue to a second date at a fancy restaurant (we like the way Steinberg thinks!). If you find yourself wanting to have this conversation, but getting lost in it, be honest and have him teach you a thing or two. He'll love it.

4. Let him feel confident that you're interested. The relationship expert said even the most confident men fear rejection. If you really want that date with him, make it clear to him that you would go on a date with him. Men need to be built up just like women do.

5. Light conversation. This is not your therapist you're talking to, in fact he's hardly more than a stranger: do not spill your problems out on the table. Keep the conversation light and silly; keep up the enthusiasm and talk about things that make you feel confident. And never forget to be the authentic woman you are!

These dating tips should help you land your first date with your new, big-biceped guy and once you do put Steinberg's best piece of dating and relationship advice to work: "Treat him like royalty."

Expert Dating Advice About Dating Traps to Avoid

On the latest episode of the Single in Stilettos show, matchmaker and dating coach Suzanne Oshima talked dating

advice with David Steele, a marriage and family therapist, relationship coach and founder of the Relationship Coaching Institute. Through his experience professionally and personally, Steele had an epiphany: “Singles become couples, that’s absolutely where we need to start.”

Dating Advice On The Worst Dating Traps

The Scarcity Trap: The fear that there is not someone out there for you often takes the reins and drives you into an undesirable relationship and love. You then settle and find yourself in a state of greater unhappiness than before. Fear, desperation, and the need to survive in the dating world all set in. “We believe we have to settle for less or be all alone, that what we really want is not out there,” he explains. Steele’s expert dating advice is that what’s in your mind is destined to become reality, and it may not be the destiny you’re after.

Related Link: Dating Experts Give Dating Advice to Attract a High Quality Man

The Attraction Trap: The dating expert says that we may be attached to a lot of things: our favorite clothes, ice cream –especially after a relationship rough patch, I might add – and people. However, that does not necessarily mean we love them. Oftentimes, we mistake attraction and chemistry as love. “We tend to interpret these strong feelings as love – it’s meant to be – because we’re feeling it so strongly, so we really have to balance our heads with our hearts,” Steele says. When dating, we need to be clear about who we are, what we want, and what we need.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 7 Guys You’re Probably Not Going to Marry

The Rescue Trap: ‘I Need a Hero’ may have been a hit, but entering the dating realm with that mantra will be a fail almost every time, as per Steele's relationship advice. When we are unhappy or struggling, we often think that a relationship or another person will solve all of our woes, yet this is the wrong reason to choose a relationship. "If we're not happy, we're going to attract more unhappiness in our life," Steele says. "Success breeds success, and misery loves company."

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: Top 4 Places to Meet Mr. Right

On a very real note, relationship expert Steele adds, "A relationship won't solve all your problems. It won't cure your depression. It won't make you happy all by itself. You're just basically going to get more of what you already have that you don't want." And this is why you must find your own happiness before looking for it in others!

Dating Experts Give Relationship Advice To

Attract a High Quality Man

On this week's Single in Stilettos post, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks expert relationship advice with love coach Nicole Moore on finding your next relationship and love. They're not talking how to attract just any man, but a high quality man. "You want to be an energy of 'I am the prize,'" Moore exclaimed.

Author Gives Relationship Advice To Help You Find The Right Man

Here are Moore's three best pieces of expert relationship advice to help you be magnetic to a high quality man:

1. Be present in your body, not your head. When you are present in your head, you are dating from your insecurities and fears, but when you are present in your body, you transition from thinking to feeling. The dating experts say that men are constantly thinking they want a woman who will make them feel. A high quality man will love the energy you emit when you are totally present in the date and not in your own head.

Related Link: Dating Experts Reveal How To Attract the Right Man

2. Do not hate men. Women often hold negative notions of men: they cheat, they lie, all they want is sex. But here's some love advice: If these thoughts are in your mind, he can read them in your energy and when he does he is not going to feel safe or comfortable with you. When you love and appreciate men, they will flock to you because your energy makes them want to be around you.

3. Be confident in yourself and what you have to offer. High quality men know they have options and they want to be confident in making their choice, but first they must feel confident about you. If you act confidently in front of him, he will be confident in your presence.

Expert Dating Advice: How to Be a Smarter Dater

On this week's Single in Stilettos show, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to dating expert and relationship author Tinzley Bradford about how to be a smarter dater. "I do what I do because I love to help women be better!" Bradford, writer of The Settle-Free Dating Method for Women, exclaims.

Relationship Author Helps You Find the Right Man

Here are Bradford's three best pieces of expert dating advice to help you be a smarter dater:

1. Be observant: "I'm a strong believer in watching what people do versus what they say," the dating expert reveals. If he says he's going to call you at a certain time but never does, that's something important for you to note. Always keep his actions in mind.

2. Be aware of who you're dating: If you already see some not-so-great sides of your partner, it may be time to move on. For instance, if you want a serious relationship and love, but he just wants to "Netflix and chill," be smart and listen to what he says. "Ladies, you can't change a man's mind," Oshima explains.

3. Don't overstress: You don't have to go on a date every night or even every weekend. Don't put too much pressure on yourself. "Date yourself sometimes," Bradford shares of this piece of expert dating advice. "Take time for you. A little downtime never hurts."

Expert Dating Advice: Top Four Places to Meet Mr. Right

In this week's dating advice video from Single in Stilettos, founder Suzanne Oshima and relationship author Duana Welch discuss the top four places to meet Mr. Right.

Consider This Expert Dating Advice If You Want to Meet Mr. Right

To follow this expert dating advice, the best places to meet Mr. Right are listed below:

1. Look for your future in your past: Welch says that 10 percent of women have a “lost love.” If you broke up because of outside circumstances, like moving away or a background difference, it’s worth reconnecting. These couples “often know within one hour that this person is The One for them,” explains the relationship author. “And their divorce rate is two percent.”

2. Ask your friends and family to set you up: Statistically, most people meet their significant other this way. It’s so successful because it capitalizes on familiarity and safety. “It’s an informal matchmaking process that works really well,” says Welch.

3. Get online: Between 2002 and 2008, according to the Harris Survey, one in three new marriages were between people who met through online dating – and those couples were slightly happier than pairs who met another way. “That’s my story,” the relationship author of Love Factually shares. “I met my husband online.”

4. Use the Law of Proximity: You’re most likely to marry someone you’ve met in person (duh!), and therefore, the single biggest predictor of a life partner is geographic nearness. "You need to put yourself next to this person," Welch says. "Let's say that you're taking a couple of college classes, and there's a really attractive guy in that class...You need to sit next to him."
