

Dating Advice: Balancing Your Career & Relationships and Love

On this week's Single in Stilettos relationship advice video, dating experts Suzanne Oshima and CupidsPulse.com Executive Editor Lori Bizzoco reveal three dating advice tips on balancing your relationships and love with a booming career!

Dating Advice On How To Balance Your Love Life & A Booming Career

If you've ever wondered, "Can I really have it all?", these relationship experts are here to tell you that you can. We may not be able to have it all at the same time, but you can balance your career and love life with these tips below.

1. Prioritization. Make sure you set priorities for yourself so you're happy with what you've accomplished, whether it be at work or in your personal life. Also, communicate what's important to you with your significant other and even your boss.

2. Time management. Need some dating advice? Start devoting time to your relationship the same way you do with work. Set boundaries and make sure you're not working 12-14 hour days, because that's not healthy. If you make a time commitment to someone, be there, whether it's with your friends or your partner.

3. Communication. Take interest in your partners day and ask about their coworkers, while sharing details about your own job. You'll feel connected and it will help you unwind after a stressful work day. But limit job chit chat, so it doesn't consume the relationship.

On this week's Single in Stilettos dating advice video, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Matt Adams about what turns a man off on a first date.

On a first date, the biggest turn off for a man is when a woman talks about her relationship goals right off the bat. Yes, men want to know if you want to get married and have kids, but not in the first meeting. Wait to share your relationship and love goals, so that your date can get to know

Relationship Advice from E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach On Falling In Love

Have you ever thought of falling in love as a decision, rather than the spontaneous, exciting chemistry that's often shown in the movies? Most people haven't, however, relationship expert Laurel House shares that people need to stop waiting to fall and instead make the decision to open your heart and let your guard down. The simple act of falling in love is called chemistry, which is actually a drug, and it fades. The dating expert featured on E!'s Famously Single reveals that chemistry shows itself in the brain in the same location as cocaine and even shows similar attributes.

While the high of falling in love feels good, it also fixes blinders to your face that makes it hard to see the warning signs that would prove that your relationship and love won't lead you to happily ever after. If you want to truly experience love, House's relationship advice is to make the decision to open your heart and date smart. With a clear head and minus the facade, you can make the decision to find love. The decision includes being vulnerable because if you aren't, you won't feel their love and you won't love them either. Although it might be quite shocking and contrary to popular belief, surveys show that moving in together actually won't benefit your relationship and love. It might even make it suffer. The experts say that those who move in together before marriage are more likely to get divorced and cheat on each other.

Experts say women may need some relationship advice that when a man asks you to move in, he isn't asking you to marry him. Without that commitment to marriage, men are less likely to propose and more likely to have an affair. If you end up moving in together before marriage, or before you've set your wedding date, you might end up playing at commitment, instead of fully committing.

Dating Expert Says Look For What You Need, Not Want!

By E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach, Laurel House

In this week's dating advice video, relationship expert and E!'s Famously Single dating coach, Laurel House shares the secret on how to be happy in your relationship and love for the rest of your life! Her expert love advice is simple: Make sure you're looking for what you need versus what you want.

E!'s Famously Single Dating Expert On Wants Vs. Needs

If your love life isn't where you want it to be, then you may be searching too hard for what you want, instead of what you need. The list of "must-haves" that you judge every potential partner by, is actually just a list of preferences and aren't essential to a lasting relationship. "You need someone who makes you feel like a priority and communicates with you," the dating expert shares. But you don't necessarily need that person to be tall, dark, and handsome.

Start looking at your needs as sexy. It's sexy when your honey shows up physically and emotionally for you. It's sexy when your love is kind to you and respects you. It's attractive when you share the same core values. If you don't have your needs met, the connection won't last. "Get your needs met and your wants will be fulfilled," House says.

Expert Dating Advice: How to Make a Relationship and Love Work

On this week's Single in Stilettos relationship advice video, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to dating expert and Robert Manni about how to make a relationship and love work.

Dating Expert Robert Manni Reveals How to Keep Your Relationship and Love Strong

Here are five pieces of expert dating advice to follow if you want a strong relationship and love:

1. Pay attention: As Manni explains, "Guys are not that good at paying attention, and women pay attention to everything." If you want to keep your partner happy, be mindful to their needs.

Related Link: Improve Your Chances of Finding Love, Thanks to This Relationship Advice Video!

2. Give your partner the benefit of the doubt: People are very quick to point out if something's not completely right, but a lot of times, there's a rationale behind people's behavior. Don't jump to conclusions!

3. Have shared values: "A couple can be opposites, but it's the values that count – they need to sync up," the dating expert says. For instance, two people need the same viewpoint on money, trust, and family, which often goes back to how they were raised.

4. Communicate: It's important that neither person shuts down when it comes to communication. Really listen and hear where the other person is coming from. "It's very important that women don't expect men to read their minds and that men are willing to engage about an issue," Manni shares. "Both women and men have to meet each other halfway."

Related Link: Relationship Advice Video: Three Things Women Don't Know About Men

5. Always keep dating: It's easy to get comfortable and unintentionally take things for granted. "I'm guilty of that all the time," the relationship author of The Guy's Guys Guide to Love admits. "You have to keep the mindset – and the heartset – that the person you're with is somebody that you're constantly wooing."

Dating Expert Gives Love Advice: Is It Okay To Fake It?

By E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach, Laurel House

In this week's dating advice video, relationship expert and E!'s Famously Single dating coach, Laurel House shares great love advice on whether or not it's okay to fake it! Her expert dating advice is to communicate and ensure that your man knows how to please you.

E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach Talks Faking It

It's no surprise that dating experts want to make sure that you're communicating in your relationship and love. If your honey doesn't know how to please you, "that's a real problem in the relationship!" House explains. But when your styles clash, you're not in the mood, and it's simply not going to happen, what do you do? You have three options:

1. You fake it and give the guy a break: Sure, you've given him the false confidence that he's doing a great job, but you've also missed him. You even rewarded him for a job poorly done and did yourself a disservice. Don't make this mistake!

Related Link: Expert Dating Advice: How To Find The Good Guys Sexy

2. You feign suddenly remembering that you're busy: You were supposed to call your mom, or maybe you're too tired or really stressed. This is alright because at least you haven't missed him, but your avoidance isn't helping your cause either. Don't put off the conversation.

Related Link: Screwing the Rules Video Dating Tips: Dress Up for Your Man

3. You fess up in a nice way: You tell him that it's not going to happen like that, but if he did this instead, it would feel so amazing. He needs to know that just because a certain technique worked on someone else doesn't mean it'll work on you. We have different experiences and preferences. Styles don't always mesh up at first, but that doesn't mean that they won't eventually. Don't be afraid to let him know what you like!

If he's paying attention and he cares, he'll make adjustments for you. Don't forget to also pay attention to his styles and make sure he's happy as well. Communication is key for maximum pleasure.

Relationship Advice Video: 5 Things That Belong On Your Must-Have List

On this week's Single in Stilettos relationship advice video, dating expert Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship author Duana Welch about the five things that belong on your must-have list.

Relationship Advice Video Reveals What To Have On Your Must-Have List

While some relationship experts assert that you need to throw away your must-have list, others give love advice about what you need to be looking for when it comes to your next relationship and love. The relationship advice video above reveals the 5 things that belong on every woman's must-have list:

Related Link: Dating Experts Say Your List Of Must-Haves Isn't That Important!

1. Someone who is kind and respectful: Your gold standard should be someone who expresses kindness even when things aren't going his way. You don't want to be with someone who will take it out on you when they've had a bad day.

2. Someone who wants the same amount and type of intimacy: Everyone has a different attachment style, but you need to align yourself with someone who has the same style as you. If you are secure and want to cuddle a lot, you can't be with someone who is avoidant and doesn't want to spend time with you.

3. Someone whose past won't ruin your future: The biggest indicator of how someone will act in the future is their past. If your partner has a harrowing story, make sure they learned from it and overcame the obstacles thrown their way.

4. Someone who is at least as into you as you are into them: Science proves that men fall harder and faster during the falling in love stage of a relationship and love. If your man isn't as into it as you are, take a step back and reevaluate.

5. Someone who heals rather than worsens your own issues: The reason we get into intimate partnerships is to have a good time, so make sure you're having a great time with someone who makes your life happier.

Expert Dating Advice: What A Man Doesn't Want In A Woman

In this week's relationship advice video, matchmaker and relationship expert Suzanne Oshima talks to dating coach Arica Angelo about what men don't want in a woman. Check out their expert dating advice above!

Expert Dating Advice For Women

In any relationship and love, you are 50 percent of the equation. So before you start blaming the man for how he acts on a first date, start thinking about what you're contributing to the conversation. Follow this expert dating advice and remember these three things that men don't want in a woman:

1. A sense of entitlement: Men hate women who are entitled and self-centered. Just think: You wouldn't like it if one of your girlfriends acted that way! It completely turns them off and puts a bad taste in their mouth. Don't be demanding or have expectations when you aren't giving anything back. A man wants a woman who really appreciates him.

2. Someone who is boring: Men also hate it when a woman looks bored on a date and, in turn, is boring to hangout with. If you look at your phone on a date and only reply with one word answers, then you need to start putting yourself out there. Don't be scared to let loose! Beware, though, because you also can't just keep talking about yourself. You need to ask him questions too and engage in conversation.

3. Someone who is superficial: Never play the superficial card. Men don't like having superficial conversations, like talking about your shoes or tanning regimen. Why would you talk about those things on a date? If you're nervous and shy, stray away from these topics because it makes you look dumb and entitled (see #1!).

Online Dating

By E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach, Laurel House

Expert Online Dating Advice from E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach Laurel House

Before you begin online dating, you need to turn your focus inward. "Do some soul searching and figure out who you truly are at your core, what you stand for as a person, what you actually enjoy doing, what your dating purpose is, and what you truly need as opposed to what you want,” says relationship expert Laurel House. She believes that the answers to those questions are essential when it comes to being authentic and attracting the right person for your next relationship and love. This idea holds true whether you use online dating or another method to meet someone special. Otherwise, according to this expert dating advice, you may end up in a partnership that doesn't suit you.

Love Advice for Women: He's Definitely Interested...But He's Not Pursuing Me!

In this week's relationship advice video from Single in Stilettos, matchmaker and dating expert Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship author Tinzley Bradford about what to do when a guy is definitely interested but isn't pursuing you.

Dating Experts Share Love Advice For Women

Has a guy ever gone out with you and acted into you but then pulled back suddenly and temporarily? If so, don't worry! It happens to women all of the time, and we have some love advice for you. Relationship experts agree that he may be too shy or scared to evolve the relationship and love. While you don't want to come across as demanding or sassy, you can still ask him what's going on in a cute way, like by sending him a text that says you miss him. If you're vulnerable with him, hopefully, he'll be vulnerable with you too.

However, if this game continues over a long period of time, follow this love advice and just say, "Next!" Your time is valuable, and so are you. Know your self worth, and don't become that desperate, nagging woman. Dating should have a push-pull dynamic with both parties initiating conversation and dates. If you're trying to develop the relationship and he doesn't respond, then you're wasting your time and his. You'll need to pull back and kindly stop initiating anything.
