Dating Expert Reveals What Women

Don't Know About Men

According to this relationship advice video, there are three things that women don't know about men. First, men are not that complicated. The dating expert says that they are very simple creatures – what you see is what you get! Second, they don't pay attention. They're consumed with their own lives and often forget to focus on the details of their relationship. If you want him to open up, you have to ease him into it; otherwise, you might scare him away. And finally, men aren't mind readers. If you feel a certain way, you need to tell him because he probably won't figure it out on his own. Armed with this love advice, you'll be ready for your next date!

Laurel House From E!'s Famously Single Shares Expert Dating Advice for Your Next First Date

The Screwing the Rules relationship author elaborates, "The key to ex talk is that you both reveal. Once you bring up your ex, encourage him to chime in about his too." Before discussing your past relationship and love, consider this expert dating advice:

DO talk about the most interesting men you've dated, but don't go on and on.

DO express regrets but explain that you learned from those mistakes.

DON'T sound bitter, broken, jaded, or angry.

DON'T talk as though you're still in love with him.

DON'T mention things that no guy wants to hear about (like your sex life) or things that you wouldn't want to get back to your ex.

The relationship author then shares her best tips for how to bring up your ex. "Do it strategically. Don't go on and on.

Don't talk about them for more than 20 minutes total. Don't make it a sob session, a therapy session, or a show-off session," she says.

Expert Love Advice About What Men Want

The relationship experts first clarify that beauty is not an option. As Oshima explains, "Ladies, physical looks are the number one thing, but I'm talking about the number one quality a woman should have in order to get a man." Crowther then responds with his expert love advice: It's going to vary from guy to guy! "Some men love to be challenged, while some men love to be nurtured or taken care of," he shares. The dating expert encourages you to figure out what part of you is most important for a guy to accept; if he's not okay with that piece of your personality, then he's not the one for you. It's that simple!

Screwing the Rules Video Dating Advice: 5 Lies Guys Tell on Facebook

By E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach, Laurel House

In this week's dating advice video, relationship expert and E!'s Famously Single dating coach, Laurel House shares the five most common lies that guys tell on Facebook.

E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach Laurel House Shares Dating Advice for Facebook

1. His relationship status: Be wary of an “undeclared” status. “It means nothing, and it’s the go-to for many guys who are playing the field of this free dating site called Facebook,” she says. She also warns you not to trust a guy who says he’s “single” on his profile; he may keep it that way for business purposes despite being married or in a committed relationship.

Related Link: Dating Red Flags Revealed on Facebook

2. Your shared connections: He may have a friend or two in common with you, but remember that he can request anyone to be his friend. Don’t let your common connections give you a false sense of comfort and trust.

3. His age: “Age is one of those hidden facts on Facebook that is revealed on other online dating sites,” the relationship author explains. If you’re unsure, check out his friends, education history, and favorite activities to determine if they all add up and make sense with what he told you.

4. His occupation: It’s easy to use vague titles like CEO, entrepreneur, or producer. “People can assign themselves pretty much any fancy label despite the fact that they have nothing to show for it or back it up,” House shares.

Related Link: Laurel House on Her New Book: “I’m Pretty Nervous for My Ex-Boyfriends to Read It!”

5. His lifestyle: Don’t completely trust his photos and locations. Instead, ask his specific questions about a particular restaurant, gym, or hotel. After all, he may be strategizing and promoting a lifestyle that he doesn't actually live.

Don't let these common lies scare you off of Facebook. As the dating expert says, "Just like you do in everyday life, be aware of your environment and your surroundings and who you let get close to you. Facebook isn't a place to drop your guard."

Expert Dating Advice About the Secrets of Meeting Men

On this week's Single in Stilettos show, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Des O'Connor about the secrets of meeting men.

Relationship Experts Reveal Where and How to Meet Someone Special

According to O'Connor's expert dating advice, you have to remember that you can meet men anytime, anywhere! It's something you should always be doing to increase your chances of success. The relationship expert reveals that you can meet a man while you're walking down the street, running errands, or even standing in line at the grocery store. Just keep your eyes open!

They also encourage you to go where men like to hangout. They enjoy sporting events like basketball, hockey, or boxing. And while they may not like to shop, the men's section of a department store is another good option! Once you spot a potential match, all you have to do is smile and strike up a conversation.

Expert Love Advice: He's Great, But He's a Bad Kisser...Now What?!

On this week's Single in Stiletto show, matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to dating expert Marni Kinrys about how to handle a bad kisser.

Dating Experts Discuss What to Do About a Bad Kisser

The founder of the Wing Girl Method believes that, unlike women, men don't like to hear that they're doing something incorrectly or that they're turning you off in some way. "So there has to be a gentle way for you to say, "Yeah, you're the worst kisser in the entire world!" Kinrys explains. According to her expert love advice, the best way to do so is to take on a teacher role and show him in a fun and flirty way how you like to be kissed.

Afterwards, you want to reward him. "Say something like, 'That was so sexy the way you were kissing me,'" the relationship expert shares. "Walk him through those steps again so it reinforces what it was he was doing that was correct.”

Single in Stilettos Show: Relationship Experts Discuss Why He Didn't Call

On this week's Single in Stilettos show, founder Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert David Crowther about why your date didn't call when he said he would.

Relationship Experts Share Dating Advice

The dating consultant for SurviveWomen.com explains that the only person who truly knows the answer to this question is the man himself. However, the relationship experts offer a few potential reasons for you to consider: Something may have come up in his personal or professional life; he didn't find you attractive or may have been bothered by something you said; or he may be taken already. Of course, he may just be someone who lacks integrity. If that's the case, he's not someone you want as your partner in a long-term relationship and love.

Screwing the Rules Video Dating Tips: Never Listen to

THIS Relationship Advice

By E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach, Laurel House

Does your best girlfriend, your mom, your sister, or any other female in your life try to give you relationship advice? In this week's dating advice video, relationship expert and E!'s Famously Single dating coach, Laurel House shares three pieces of love advice that you should ignore, despite what they may tell you.

Dating Expert from E!'s Famously

Single Says to Ignore This Relationship Advice

1. Don't sleep with him too soon: This timeline will vary for each couple. For some, it may be the first date, and for others, it may not be until three months into a committed relationship. "The only person who gets to be the judge of that is you," House explains.

2. Dump him – immediately: Even if your guy is acting like a jerk, don't assume that the only solution is to break up with him. "Take a minute to think about if it's a real problem in the relationship or if it's a deal breaker," she shares. "If you cut the line because your friend said you should, you might quickly regret that decision."

Related Link: Busting the Soul Mate Myth

3. Follow the dating rules: Your friends may tell you not to call him first or to pretend you're busy when he asks you out. They may encourage you to keep your cards close and not reveal too much of yourself to him. As the dating expert says, "You might not even realize that the rules you're following are actually games." Instead, "screw those rules! It's time to get real."

If you're looking for a love that lasts, stop listening to these three pieces of relationship advice from your friends and family. "Your loved ones aren't in your situation, so they don't know exactly what you're going through," House reveals. "It's your life. Live it the way you feel in your heart, your gut, your soul, and your mind."

By E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach, Laurel House

In this week's dating advice video, relationship expert and E!'s Famously Single dating coach, Laurel House discusses how The Bachelor, particularly season 19 with Chris Soules, and other similar reality TV shows are changing the reality of dating.

Dating Advice from E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach Laurel House

"They're helping to shape the way we view what is desirable, what is sexy," she explains of the reality TV franchise. "With Farmer Chris from Iowa as America's current leading man, the dating landscape has dramatically shifted." House reveals five ways that Soules is changing the reality of dating: Women no longer want bad boys like former Bachelor Juan Pablo Galavis; we see farmers as marriage material; we're going back to the basics and forgetting about the rich and famous; we want a true gentleman; and we (finally!) think nice is sexy.
