Ovation Premieres Drama-Filled New Show, 'Versailles'

This post is sponsored by Versailles and Ovation.

By Mallory McDonald

On Saturday, October 1st, Ovation, an independent television and digital media company dedicated to celebrating and supporting all forms of art and culture, premiered its latest show Versailles. The show is centered around the Sun King, also known as King Louis XIV or Louis the Great. He was a monarch of the House of Bourbon and ruled as King of France in the 16th and 17th centuries. While it captures the romance, drama, and betrayal surrounding the Sun King, it also showcases the beauty and opulence of France's high society during this time.

If you are looking for a new show that is packed with drama, romance, history, and betrayal, Versailles is the one for you!

The show's two main characters are the Sun King, played by George Blagden, and his younger brother Philippe, played by Alexander Vlahos. To protect Philippe from his older brother overshadowing him, his mother raised him as a girl. He is a lover of art and beauty; however, on the battlefield, he is a fearsome soldier, and Louis is jealous of his talents.

In the video above, Blagden and Vlahos share their thoughts about their characters and the relationship between the Sun King and his younger brother. Initially, Vlahos had some mixed emotions about his role, saying, "I got a call in the middle of rehearsals from the producer describing Phillipe as a modern day David Bowie, and I was like, 'Yeah I think I can do that.'" However, when Vlahos began portraying Phillipe, he felt like he was in over his head. Soon though, he recognized their similarities.

Within the first week of filming, Blagden felt that he and Vlahos established a natural chemistry that viewers will be able to see on screen. Of working so closely with Blagden, Vlahos shares, "We approach things differently, but we agree completely with each other about why these characters are doing what they're doing. Also, he is a genius actor, and he is very considerate and complimentary and giving."

Tune into Versailles on Sundays at 10 p.m. ET/PT on Ovation and learn what becomes of the two brothers and their personal conflicts!

Dating Advice: Don't Be a Rules Girl!

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert, Wendy Newman to offer their best dating advice on finding true love without a rule book. Forget all that you thought you knew, and follow these three dating tips if you want to start having success on your dates!

Dating Advice On Not Following The Rules

1. Don't strategize intimacy. You shouldn't worry too much about when is the right time to have sex. There is no right time, except for when you are both ready to take it to that level. Men in particular aren't interested in women who will hold out on intimacy in a strategic way.

2. Take control of your dating life. Be available if you're interested in a man. You don't necessarily have to pursue, but take the opportunity to drop a hint that you're open to dating. This will allow you to have control instead of relying on men to make the first move.

Related Link: Dating Advice: 3 Biggest Mistakes Keeping You from True Love

3. Make the time. It's alright if you want to give chase, but don't be too unavailable. You need to make time in your schedule for potential dates. If you're too busy and keep rejecting a man, he'll most likely move on to someone else. Try to pencil him in within two weeks.

1. Putting the past in the future. Using criteria from your past in your future is a sure way to sabotage new relationships. There's usually pain in the past and bringing those thoughts with you can make you fearful or cause pain. Use your love desires instead, in other words, traits you'd like to find in a partner.

2. Try to be happy. Just like in the movies, the main character always falls in love when they're happy and having a good day. If you're open to being happy more often, you'll open yourself to men and invite them in with your positive energy.

3. Learn to be confident. Nobody likes a person who looks insecure or desperate. Don't give your power away by seeking validation from men. When you're confident, men will simply be attracted to that and will want to be around you.

Dating Advice: When Should I Sleep With A Guy?

On this week's episode of Single in Stilettos, founder and matchmaker Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship expert Jonathan Aslay to offer their dating advice about when it would be right to sleep with a new partner. Follow these dating tips if you want to start having success on your dates.

Dating Advice On Sleeping With A New Man

1. Do what is right for you. There is no real timeframe that is right for everyone. You need to come to terms with yourself and find out when the right time is for you. If you're looking for a serious relationship, you may not want to sleep with a new man too soon. A man who truly cares about you will try to get to know you before taking you to the bedroom.

Related Link: Dating Advice: How To Be Sexy On Date Night

2. Try the 10-date rule. You'll be able weed out the men who only want to have sex after the third and fourth date. The likelihood of sleeping together increases somewhere between the sixth and tenth date. This is a great option for those who are looking for someone that legitimately like them. The ten dates should occur somewhere between 6-weeks if it's not a long-distance relationship.

3. Don't be jaded. Negativity and cynical attitudes sabotage a lot of relationships. Don't assume all men are bad. The experts dating advice is to be open to love and realistic with your expectations. Many women say they need a commitment before having sex, but you need to define what commitment means to you and go forward with your relationships accordingly.

Dating Advice Q&A: How Has Technology Changed the Way We Date?

Question from Sandy L.: I'm a recently divorced mom of three who is jumping back into the wonderful world of dating. I can already tell that things are very different than when I was last single! How has technology changed the way we date? Should I definitely try online dating?

Dating can be complicated. Add social media and electronic devices into the mix, and it can get even more tricky to find a compatible partner. completely changed since the last time you dated, it's also a really great time to be single. Meeting men has never been easier, especially with the advent of online dating. And while it can seem a little scary to put yourself out there so publicly, online dating is actually one of the best ways to meet someone. Just put together a profile with great photos (men are very visual, so you need to attract him) and an essay that shows your fun personality and what you're passionate about...soon your calendar will be booked up with dates! Here are a few tips to help you get started. Before signing up for any sites or apps, decide what you want from the experience. Save time, psychic energy, and money by limiting your initial foray into the online dating world by signing up for only a few services. Talk to your single friends about their experiences and ask them for dating tips in setting up your profile. Most importantly, don't limit your dating life to the online world. Meeting other singles the old fashioned way—through friends, at work, by taking a class, and just by living your life still works.
