Expert Dating Advice: Top Four Places to Meet Mr. Right

In this week's dating advice video from Single in Stilettos, founder Suzanne Oshima and relationship author Duana Welch discuss the top four places to meet Mr. Right.

Consider This Expert Dating Advice If You Want to Meet Mr. Right

To follow this expert dating advice, the best places to meet Mr. Right are listed below:

1. Look for your future in your past: Welch says that 10 percent of women have a "lost love." If you broke up because of outside circumstances, like moving away or a background difference, it's worth reconnecting. These couples "often know within one hour that this person is The One for them," explains the relationship author. "And their divorce rate is two percent."

Related Link: Duana Welch Says Living Together Doesn't Prepare You for More

2. Ask your friends and family to set you up: Statistically, most people meet their significant other this way. It's so successful because it capitalizes on familiarity and safety. "It's an informal matchmaking process that works really well," says Welch.

3. Get online: Between 2002 and 2008, according to the Harris Survey, one in three new marriages were between people who met through online dating – and those couples were slightly happier than pairs who met another way. "That's my story," the relationship author of Love Factually shares. "I met my husband online."

Related Link: How to Ditch Your "Better Than Nothing" Relationship and Love

4. Use the Law of Proximity: You're most likely to marry someone you've met in person (duh!), and therefore, the single biggest predictor of a life partner is geographic nearness. "You need to put yourself next to this person," Welch says. "Let's say that you're taking a couple of college classes, and there's a really attractive guy in that class...You need to sit next to him."

In this week's relationship advice video, relationship expert and E!'s Famously Single dating coach, Laurel House gives relationship advice for how to fall in love. Check out the video above for more details!

Relationship Advice from E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach On Falling In Love

Have you ever thought of falling in love as a decision, rather than the spontaneous, exciting chemistry that's often shown in the movies? Most people haven't, however, relationship expert Laurel House shares that people need to stop waiting to fall and instead make the decision to open your heart and let your guard down. The simple act of falling in love is called chemistry, which is actually a drug, and it fades. The dating expert featured on E!'s Famously Single reveals that chemistry shows itself in the brain in the same location as cocaine and even shows similar attributes.

While the high of falling in love feels good, it also fixes blinders to your face that makes it hard to see the warning signs that would prove that your relationship and love won't lead you to happily ever after. If you want to truly experience love, House's relationship advice is to make the decision to open your heart and date smart. With a clear head and minus the facade, you can make the decision to find love. The decision includes being vulnerable because if you aren't, you won't feel their love and you won't love them either. moving in together before marriage, or before you've set your wedding date, you might end up playing at commitment, instead of fully committing.

Model, actress, and celebrity mom Molly Sims shares that it's easy with simple scheduling and planning ahead. In our exclusive celebrity video interview, Molly Sims opens up further about raising her family and how she keeps her life in harmony.

Molly Sims Shares How To Be Healthy as a Celebrity Mom

Raising a 3-year-old and 6-month old baby is time-consuming. Squeezing in exercise time can seem like an impossible task. Molly Sims' advice for staying fit is to schedule time for yourself, even if it's only five minutes. "Even if you have 20 minutes you can workout," she says. "Even if it's at your house, even if it's on your block." Sims also shares that you can fit in a workout if you cut time away from other chores, such as getting ready in the morning. “Know what you’re going to wear for the week, it saves a lot of time and a lot of angst,” she added. Getting ahead as much as you can is vital to managing a hectic work week. Also, make sure you carve time out for your significant other! Your relationship and love life is important, so work with your partner as a team in order to balance everything on your to-do list.

In terms of finding time to eat healthy, Sims suggests always having a pack of almonds or a banana on hand to avoid indulging in sugary snacks when you’re on the go. It’s easy to be tempted by the convenience of fast food when you’re in a hurry, but having a healthy alternative with you will give you no reason to cave.

Throughout the celebrity video interview, Sims shows a clear sense of self-worth and self-love, demonstrating how important it is to be confident with ourselves. “The best advice I can give woman is feeling good on the inside...it’s really about feeling good with yourself right now,” Sims says. Rather than over-stress yourself with losing weight, first you must set a goal to be happy on the inside. Stress doesn’t have any benefit to our life so you must focus on personal happiness, then move on to weight loss. Sims also shares her own weight loss struggle. After giving birth to her first child she had to lose 85 lbs! Sims proves that even celebrity moms deal with the same weight-loss issues as regular moms.

Her dating advice is simple: Just because you're in a relationship and love doesn't mean you have to drop your opposite sex friends.

Dating Advice from E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach Laurel House That Will Help Your Friendships

Being in a committed relationship is not a single gender jail, where your partner is the bodyguard. The relationship expert offers everyone a reality check: Friends often last longer than new lovers. Your BFF's have been there through the good times and the bad. So don't disengage with your friends when you're spoken for and decide to go back when you're single. You'll most likely lose a lot of friends that way.
