

Holly Madison Says Her Past As Playboy Bunny is Like “The Elephant in the Room That Never Goes Away”

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Katelyn Di Salvo. Holly Madison best known for being a former Playboy bunny and Hugh Hefner's #1 celebrity ex has written her first memoir titled 'Down the Rabbit Hole.' In the book, she speaks openly about her relationship with Hefner, the other girls in the house and her biggest life lessons. In our exclusive celebrity interview with the reality TV star, now author, she expresses that she wishes this book will help other young women in bad relationships and hopes they learn from her mistakes.

Reality TV star reflects on her past

The former Girl Next Door has certainly moved on from her Playboy days. She has been married for two years and is mom to two-year-old daughter, Rainbow. Madison shared that she is happy to have such a supportive husband who is proud of her for telling her story.

After her celebrity break-up with celebrity ex Hefner, Madison did her best to stay quiet about her time in the mansion, “I didn’t want to talk about anything Playboy related because I felt like that was going back to it and I wanted to get away from it, but there is no getting away from it. It’s the elephant in the room that never goes away.”

It’s been seven years since she’s lived in the mansion and Madison now feels like she has a lot of hindsight behind her. This is why she decided to write the book now, “I have a lot more growth and insight as to what I was thinking at the time, and why I made some of the decisions I made, so I definitely wanted to share that with people.”

Her Relationship with Celebrity Ex Hefner and the Other Girls

Madison was Hefner’s girl for seven years, and throughout that time, she felt like she did everything she could to make it work saying, “I always tried to make the best of the situation, you know, I always tried to do my best as a girlfriend and make that relationship work.”

Her celebrity ex, Hefner recently had something to say about the release of Madison's memoir saying that she "chose to rewrite history" to "stay in the spotlight," but Madison says that she didn't have an ax to grind. She says she never wanted to hurt him or get a reaction from him, "He happens to be a big part of my life story, and I'm telling my story."

Kendra Wilkinson- Baskett and Bridget Marquardt were also a part of Madison's life story, both also being celebrity exes to Hefner. Madison describes her relationship with Bridget as a true friendship saying, "She was a really close friend to me the whole time I was in the mansion and really the only close friend and the only person I really ever confided in."

Unfortunately her relationship with Kendra did not stay as tight. The two had a falling out, which Madison describes as "very dumb." She is saddened that she is not as close with Kendra and said, "The relationships I had with the other girls are very important to me especially after I left the house, because we were the only ones that really shared that experience, and its an experience that weather you are ready to admit it or not, it's a traumatic experience, but I think she's still kind of more team Playboy and if that's what she wants to be that's fine."

Overall Madison says Hefner "was lucky to have us" when reminiscing on her relationship with the Playboy founder.

Holly Madison's Biggest Life Lessons and Relationship Advice

When asked how she will share her past with her daughter, Madison thinks the book will be a great start! She hopes her book will inspire young girls to find healthy relationships and learn from her mistakes. Madison strongly advises girls to find and love yourself before looking for love in someone else. "In a way its the worst advice because you can't teach anybody how to do that, but it's so important."

Madison is hoping to write a second book on the topic of relationships and love, so be on the look out for that!

Love Advice: How To Increase Your Chances Of Meeting The One

Relationship Experts Discuss How To Increase Your Chances of Finding Love

Finding a relationship and love isn't always easy. With that thought in mind, dating experts believe that there are things you can do to actively attract the right person. Consider these three dating tips if you're ready to find your soul mate:

1. Pay attention to the people in front of you: Instead of looking online or through an app, start to notice the people you see every day. Maybe it's time to ask out that guy from the coffee shop!

2. Be thankful for the dates you do have: Show some gratitude for the dates that you're going on. Even if he's not the right man for you, you can still appreciate the time you spend together. Remember that you can learn something from everyone you meet!

3. Give yourself permission to have the love you really desire: If you're clear about your wants and needs, then you'll be one step closer to finding your soul mate. Still, you don't want to make a long list of impossible expectations. You're trying to attract the right man, not detract the right man!

Reality TV Newcomer Chantelle Fraser Talks Relationship Status & Blood, Sweat and Heels Finale

Interview by Lori Bizzoco. Written by Jenna Bagcal.

On this season of the Bravo reality TV show Blood, Sweat and Heels, fans welcomed newcomer Chantelle Fraser to the show's cast. The UK native and founder of Flawless NYC made her television debut on the popular show and forged strong friendships and even some rivalries along the way. In this exclusive celebrity interview, CupidsPulse.com Executive Editor Lori Bizzoco caught up with Fraser who shared details about her time on the show, who she's dating, and what's next for her.

Reality TV Newcomer Discusses Her Experience on the Show

Fraser joined the cast of the Bravo reality TV show in its second season, and cites her experience on the show as "surreal." She reveals, "Well it's obviously surreal watching yourself on television, especially because I haven't been on television before, seeing myself being myself. So that's always interesting." Fraser adds that she was pleased with how she portrayed herself, but wished that the show reflected more depth regarding disputes between cast members.

One of Fraser’s biggest disputes this season was between herself and fellow cast member Demetria Lucas D’Oyley. Fraser says that the feud between the two women was not portrayed as well on the show. “Me and Demetria had a bit of beef on the show and I kind of felt like it didn’t really reflect what truly went down from the cut, which was unfortunate,” she says. Currently Fraser confirms that the two women “don’t have a relationship” after the events on the show transpired.

Despite this feud however, the young businesswoman says that she has formed great friendships with some of her fellow cast members including Geneva Thomas and Daisy Lewellyn, both of whom she speaks with regularly.

Bravo Star Shares Relationship Details and What’s Next

Before appearing on Blood, Sweat and Heels, the reality TV star was romantically linked to Mario Singer, the ex-husband of Ramona Singer from Real Housewives of New York. Rumors surrounded Fraser and Singer, who were reportedly believed to be a celebrity couple. However, Fraser revealed that she is currently in a celebrity relationship with one of her ex-boyfriends. She shared that she and her current flame, who is a New York City lawyer, have been dating since the show wrapped almost one year ago and that fans can “forget the rumors” that she and Singer are an item.

Although she has had a mostly positive experience on the show, she says that being in the cast presented challenges as well. “The biggest struggle I think is staying focused on day to day business activities because people want to pull and push you in different directions. It’s great, but at the same time I still need to keep an eye on my business.”

A new project that the entrepreneur is currently working on is flawless-living.com, which she says is a weekly website that is “focused on self development.” Fraser shares “My goal is to be the best version of myself, and I know that it’s the the goal of many other people too. It’s a journey, so we’ve enlisted experts in nutrition, health, wellness, beauty and love.”

After five months of filming, Fraser says that being on the show is better than she imagined. She reveals that the positive feedback from the media as well as the support of her fans have been “overwhelming.” She also adds, “I’m all about growing and learning. By watching myself on TV for better or for worse, I can grow and I can learn.”

Dating Expert Shares Number One Rule of Successful Online Dating

By E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach, Laurel House

In this week's dating advice video, relationship expert and E!'s Famously Single dating coach, Laurel House discusses the rules of online dating.

Dating Expert Laurel House, part of E!'s 'Famously Single' Talks About Being Honest In Your Online Dating Profile

If you've ever tried online dating, then you know how hard it is to create the perfect profile. But don't worry, because relationship author and dating expert Laurel House shares her best love advice about the number one rule of successful online dating. "Make sure your online dating profile is honest!" she shares. In this week's relationship advice video, the dating expert will help you understand how to turn off the wrong partner while simultaneously turning on the right one.

Related Link: Relationship Expert Shares Best Love Advice for How To Break Up Over Email

The relationship expert believes that “the most essential but often ignored strategy when it comes to online dating is elimination.” This means that you need to focus on turning people away who you would never be interested in to begin with. “You can try to narrow your reach within the preferences section, but many people don’t actually look at those preferences,” House shares. They also don’t address some of the more important particulars, including the personality traits. If you have a sarcastic side, be sure to mention that! Honesty is the number one rule of online dating.

One of the benefits of online dating is that you are able to expand your reach, but you don’t want to attract the wrong people. “You need to take a proactive approach,” the dating expert says. “If you say you are a lover of the finer things in life, guys who can appreciate and afford those things will find that a turn on. Men who are turned off by a woman who likes expensive things will not contact you. And that’s a good thing.” At the end of the day, you want to find somebody who understands and shares your lifestyle preferences. “You’re not there to please everyone,” House says. “You’re there to weed out the ones who might take issue with elements of who you are and what they’re expectations are of you.”

Tim Gunn Talks First Date Looks and Summer Fashion Trends

First dates can be nerve-racking, but you shouldn't worry about what to wear or where to go. "Dress up!" Gunn exclaims. "Dressing up says 'I want you to see the best of me.' It's about respect for yourself and the person you're dating." When it comes to finding the perfect first date outfit, Gunn has three essential elements that need to be balanced: Silhouette, proportion, and fit. "When those three elements are in harmony, you will look fabulous no matter what you're wearing," he says.

Choosing a location is also very important when it comes to the beginning of a relationship and love. Gunn's love advice is to always go out to eat. "I believe that a first date should be a meal, because you need to know how they interact with the waitstaff, what table manners they have, and how they interact with you during a meal," Gunn shares. "I think it's all telling."

If you're going out this summer, then remember that accessories are more important than apparel this season. Whether it's a new hat, eyewear, or wedges, accessories work with many different looks. Also keep in mind that '70's Bohemian is coming back, so splash into summer with this revived look. "Independent of trends, there is something for everyone," Gunn shares. "Think about what's in your closet and what will enhance it. And always try it on! Under all circumstances, make no assumptions about fit."

Fashion Icon Discusses Project Runway

If you're eagerly awaiting the new season of Project Runway, then you'll love to hear that filming for season 14 starts in a few days. Unfortunately, this season Gunn was not able to go on the auditions to see the broad range of talent. However, he did get to look over the new contestants that were chosen. "I'm excited about working with them, they have a lot of personality," he says. "I hope they don't cancel each other out with that personality!"

But being on a show for this long doesn't mean it's perfect. Gunn says that if he had to change one thing, he would like to be in the workroom when the designers fit their models. "I've never seen so much delusion presented to me," he says. "I'm always asking how the fittings went and invariably it's 'Oh, they were great.' Then, I look at the work on the runway and I'm like 'What? Is there a new definition of the word great?'"

Why Are You Single? Dating Experts Answer That Dreaded

Question

In this relationship advice video, matchmaker and relationship expert Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship author Tinzley Bradford about how to answer the dreaded question, “Why are you single?”

Dating Experts Reveal How to Handle a Dreaded First Date Question

When you’re on a first date, the question about why you’re single is bound to come up. Dating experts say that this question will immediately bring down the energy of the date, and you’ll find yourself searching for the best way to answer it. So, here are some great tips to get past this dreaded question with confidence:

Related Link: Improve Your Chances of Finding Love, Thanks to This Relationship Advice Video!

1. Take a lighthearted attitude and use humor. The worst thing you can do is get defensive when someone asks you that question on a date. Be lighthearted, laugh, and ask the question right back. After all, they're single, too!

2. Let them know that you don't want to be in a relationship for the sake of being in a relationship. Make sure your date knows that you want to find the right person to be part of your life; you don't want to be with just anyone.

3. Be honest and tell them you haven't had the chance to focus on a relationship until now. You can be honest and tell your date that dating hasn't been your priority because you've been busy with other things, like your career.

These dating experts say it's inevitable that you will get asked this question at some point, but it's important to not get insecure. Instead, use your sense of humor and put a positive spin on it. And then...you can change the subject to a topic that makes you feel more comfortable!

Kelly Edwards Shares Love Advice For Decorating and Design In Celebrity Video Interview

If you're moving in as a couple and your design styles don't match up, compromising is the best solution. Take a cue from Edwards' own story: “I had a coffee table that my husband hated, so I told him if we put it in the space and he still hated it after 30 days, then he could take it out,” she says. “Well, 30 days later, he forgot it was even there. I got to keep it! Now, he's in love with it, and it looks amazing.”

Don't be scared of the design and decorating process – you don't have to do it all at once. “It should happen over time,” the lifestyle expert explains. “You should have a curated space that's all you, and you've found pieces along the way from traveling or picking it up together as a couple.”

You can also save money while designing your home by having some do-it-yourself pieces. “I love to say that, if it has good bones and good structure, then you should keep it,” she says. “You should have things in your home that you love.”

It's no surprise that Edwards and her husband – a photographer – both travel a lot. “We both travel often, so I say that's the key to happy marriage,” she shares in our celebrity video interview. “We travel together and separately too.”

Being in a relationship and love for over a decade is no easy task! Edwards' love advice for a lasting partnership is to find an interest you can share. "Have a hobby you like to do together, so you're always falling in love with something new," the HGTV star says. "[My husband and I] are big foodies, and we love to travel, so every time we go to a place we haven't been before, we can experience that together. We're creating memories, so later on, no one else has that particular memory but us."

Relationship Advice Video Gives Tips On Finding Love

We all know that finding someone special isn't easy. If it were, then everyone would be in love, right? In this relationship advice video, these dating experts agree that, with these four tips, your chances of finding a relationship and love will increase.

1. Put the gadgets away: Your cell phone, computer, or tablet is creating a barrier between you and any man that wants to meet you. By holding your phone or looking at your laptop in a coffee shop, it seems like you're busy and don't want to be bothered.

2. Pay attention: It's important to pay attention and be fully present. Notice the men around you and be open to meeting them organically.

3. Get real: Be realistic and clear about who you are and what you're looking for. Once you know what you want, don't focus on a long list of "must haves." If you do, you'll be single for a long time!

4. Reach out: If you had a great time, it's important to acknowledge and follow-up after the first date. Be available and don't wait too long to schedule the second date. You don't want him to lose interest.

Relationship Expert Shares Best Love Advice for How To Break Up Over Email

By E!'s Famously Single Dating Coach, Laurel House

In this week's dating advice video, relationship expert and E!'s Famously Single dating coach, Laurel House shares her best love advice about how to break up with someone over email. "An email break-up doesn't have to be a bitchy break-up," she explains. "It can be the preferred way of breaking up because you're able to truly express how you feel." In this week's relationship advice video, the relationship expert helps you understand when it's necessary to break up over email and what type of relationship and love you need to have for it to be the preferred method.

E!'s Famously Single Laurel House Shares Love Advice On Breaking Up Over Email

The dating expert believes that, if your relationship meets these three qualifications, then an email break-up is the way to go: You've been dating for less than six months; you're not living together, and you haven't said I love you. Or if your relationship can be described by one of these circumstances, email is the best way to end it: It's a long-term digital relationship; you're unable to connect with your partner in another way; he's truly an asshole who cheated on you or conned you; or he's dangerous.

Related Link: Love Advice Video: How To Say Goodbye To Your Ex For Good

An email break-up is best for these romances because “you have the opportunity to explain yourself without being sidetracked.” Most likely, the person you're dating is a good person, but you're just not into it. They don't “deserve a hasty brush off because you feel bad.” When you write the email, remember that you need to be honest and vulnerable and tell them what's happening in your mind and why it's not working for you. End your email by saying that you'd be happy to discuss it over the phone if they want to.

As this dating expert explains, there are also men, though, who aren't going through a life change or don't want children and will date people closer to their age. For the most part, men want to date someone within 10 years of their age.

Brooke Burke-Charvet Talks Red Nose Day in Celebrity Video Interview

Celebrated for over 25 years in the UK, Red Nose Day has been a day dedicated to raising money for underprivileged children and families. On Thursday, May 21, the event will take off for the first time in the United States and include a night full of comedy, music, and fundraising that will help 12 charity organizations lift children and young people out of poverty, both in the U.S. and throughout the world. Burke-Charvet decided to partner with Walgreens for this fundraiser because she likes that “it’s really about children and young families.” Just buying the red rubber nose for one dollar at Walgreens will have an impact: “That money is going to go and make a difference for a lot of different causes – the Boys and Girls club of America, United Way, Feeding America,” the actress says.

As the mother of four children herself, she understands that teaching her celebrity kids generosity and charity is an important lesson. The model reveals that leading by example is the best way to teach your children that hard lesson. “It’s really interesting for them to be able to see it and understand it,” she shares in our celebrity video interview. “You can teach them to be generous and to give.”

Of course, fans remember the health scare that Burke-Charvet faced after being diagnosed with thyroid cancer in 2012. Now, she says, “Everything’s good. My health is perfect.” Her experiences and health issues have helped her recognize that “there’s somebody else somewhere who’s struggling with similar issues.”

Expert Love Advice Reveals Four Reasons Why Men Disappear

On this week's Single in Stilettos show, founder and dating expert Suzanne Oshima talks to relationship author Tinzley Bradford about why men disappear.

Dating Experts Explain Why Men Disappear

The author of Settle Free Dating Method for Women explains that dating is hard enough without having to worry about the great guy in your life suddenly disappearing. According to her expert love advice, here are four reasons why a man may vanish:

1. He met someone else: While it may be hard to accept, until you're in a committed, monogamous relationship, he's free to date multiple people at once – and so are you!

2. He already has someone: You may be the other woman and not even know it. If he suddenly stops calling, there's a chance he's focusing all of his attention on his girlfriend or wife. Unfortunately, some men enjoy the thrill of cheating.

3. He just wants sex: He may want sex without any strings attached. If so, if you don't give him what he wants, he'll disappear.

4. He's bored: He may think your relationship has become predictable and mundane. In that case, he may stop calling without any explanation.

If you're dating a man who disappears, it's important to remember that he's doing you a favor: Any guy who leaves without an explanation isn't the right one for you!

Laurel House From E!'s Famously Single Shares Expert Dating Advice About How to Find A Good Guy

If you always find yourself with a bad boy who isn't good for you, then follow this expert dating advice about how to find a good guy sexy:

1. Pre-qualify your dates so you can get to know him before you go out with him.
2. Shift your focus from want to need. Define your needs in a relationship and love – things like communication, respect, mutual adoration, shared core values, and trust.
3. Change your perspective of what a good guy is and focus on the positives rather than the negatives.
4. Communicate! Let him know you want him to take control; let him know your boundaries; let him talk dirty to you; and let him know it's annoying when he texts or calls too often.

5. Don't mistake nice for annoying. Then, you'll end up wondering why you dumped a guy for a stupid reason when you see him get married and live happily ever after with someone else.

Laurel House From E!'s Famously Single Shares Expert Dating Advice for Your Next First Date

The Screwing the Rules relationship author elaborates, "The key to ex talk is that you both reveal. Once you bring up your ex, encourage him to chime in about his too." Before discussing your past relationship and love, consider this expert dating advice:

DO talk about the most interesting men you've dated, but don't go on and on.

DO express regrets but explain that you learned from those mistakes.

DON'T sound bitter, broken, jaded, or angry.

DON'T talk as though you're still in love with him.

DON'T mention things that no guy wants to hear about (like your sex life) or things that you wouldn't want to get back to your ex.

The relationship author then shares her best tips for how to bring up your ex. "Do it strategically. Don't go on and on.

Don't talk about them for more than 20 minutes total. Don't make it a sob session, a therapy session, or a show-off session," she says.
